concerning evolution, then read and research further, for you will find that there is a vast sum of knowledge that shows in the strongest terms that evolutionary theory of any sort does not stack up.

The few things presented in this booklet are only the tip of the iceberg.

But what is really important is what you sincerely believe.

Evolution is a contrivance of men and demons, it will swirl around with ideas and half proofs, distorted facts, wishful thinking, and new notions all the time.

Jesus however confirms His word with miracles and healings to lead us to believe that He is the Son of God.

The Heavenly Father sent His Spirit into the world after He raised His Son from the dead and He went back bodily into Heaven.

And the Holy Spirit still performs miracles through the faith of those who open their hearts to not be swayed by the so called science of mankind, but who believe in the eternal and enduring word of God.

'God's words will ever stand, and if you put uncompromising and unwavering trust in them and the Saviour that they reveal in Jesus Christ the chosen One of God the Father, then you too will be raised from the dead and live eternally in a body that can never again get old or sick!

Eternal life is the promise of God for those who will believe and trust in Him and what He has to say.

In the end, evolution and all the theories of man that oppose what God has to say, are obviously meaningless and vanities.

People can not base their lives on such 'science' that constantly moves and itself evolves.

The only solid rock for humanity and each individual human being, is Christ.

God created the universe, and He will destroy it in the end and replace it with a new one, the home of righteousness for those who believe.

All the books on evolution and like theories will be burned when God destroys the universe.

Where will you be on that day?

Thrown into the eternally burning lake of fire with the Devil and His angels?

Or resurrected with Christ for eternal life and bliss for ever more?

Choose wisely, for this is not an academic argument over theories, but a matter of eternal life and death!

Open your heart to receive the Love of God in Christ Jesus, ask Him also approve of those who practise them.

To depart from what God has said and done, only leaves things for the power of evil to rule people's lives.

Paul, almost two thousand years ago, describes so clearly what we see happening in modern society today as more and more PC orientated evolutionary thought takes hold.

Evolutionary thought takes people away from the realities of God and Who He is.

And we are left with the present evils that are so much on the increase.

Humanity ends up sinning against our loving Creator and Heavenly Father and instead takes the Devil as their spiritual father and then behave like the devil in so many ways.

Evolutionary thought is in direct contradiction to what God has already said and done.

There is no element of it that can be mixed with Scriptural truth.

The spiritual basis of evolution pretends that God has not already spoken, and that mankind has to try and work everything out for himself.

And this attitude is carried forward into spiritual matters, where academics have even invented a concept of the evolution of religion

In it they pretend that mankind has evolved a concept of 'god', moving from having many 'gods' to having only 'one'.

By this they assert that as man's brain supposedly evolved, he was better able to rationalize things, and moved from a superstitious belief in many 'gods' to only one, and as he further evolves, he will even get rid of having only one 'god'!

The amazing thing is however, that this absurd idea stands in direct contrast with what has been found in both the study of ancient and recently encountered ethnic groups.

Don Richardson in 'Eternity in their Hearts' shows conclusively that the trend over the vast bulk of the planet has been in the opposite direction. That ancient man had a true knowledge of Creator God, and that over time corrupting influences have marred this image of the True God.

It was the communists who first really jumped on this notion of the evolution of 'god'. The Russian communists even tried to remove the name of God from their dictionaries!

It is the sort of thing that Satan wants to happen to mankind. And works hard to bring to pass.

If you are going to have a living faith in God and are troubled over doubts

O my GOD,

. . YOUR years go on through all generations.

“In the beginning YOU laid the foundations of the earth, and the heavens are the work of YOUR Hands.

“They will perish, but YOU remain; they will all wear out like a garment. Like clothing YOU will change them and they will be discarded.

“But YOU remain the same, and YOUR years will never end.”

Psalm 102

Long ago by GOD's word . .

“The heavens existed and the earth was formed out of water and by water.

“By these waters also the world of that time was deluged and destroyed.

“By the same word the present heavens and earth are reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

Peter 3:5-7

Since Ancient Times

Since the most ancient of times man has known the exact truth of his own, the Earth's and the Universe's origin and beginning, and where everything is headed.

What has happened in recent decades, in certain countries of the world, to move mankind from that certain knowledge?

As you read through these pages you will discover that what you believe especially about GOD—His SON, the creation He has made, and the various theories of evolution, determines your Eternity.

Introduction

Over recent years the writer has been asked for material dealing with the current blind acceptance of the scientific urban myth called "Evolution"— and the problem with some scientists treating it as if it were factual and proven .

Finding that many people want something smaller than a many hundred page book, this writer presents information showing why Evolution can never genuinely move on to become a proven Law of Nature, and will always just remain an unprovable theory.

What really happened at the beginning?

What is going to happen to the world and the universe?

And importantly, what is each person's role to be in it all?

By GOD's grace this booklet sets out to provide an introduction to these vast topics.

Don't be put off by some of the scientific or technical things that have to be quoted earlier in this booklet, read through them, and you'll pick up the essence of what is being spoken about.

known about God is plain to them, because God has made it plain to them.

20 For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities his eternal power and divine nature have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that men are without excuse.

21 For although they knew God, they neither glorified him as God nor gave thanks to him, but their thinking became futile and their foolish hearts were darkened.

22 Although they claimed to be wise, they became fools

23 and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images made to look like mortal man and birds and animals and reptiles.

24 Therefore God gave them over in the sinful desires of their hearts to sexual impurity for the degrading of their bodies with one another.

25 They exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshipped and served created things rather than the Creator who is for ever praised. Amen.

26 Because of this, God gave them over to shameful lusts.

Even their women exchanged natural relations for unnatural ones.

27 In the same way the men also abandoned natural relations with women and were inflamed with lust for one another. Men committed indecent acts with other men, and received in themselves the due penalty for their perversion.

28 Furthermore, since they did not think it worth while to retain the knowledge of God, he gave them over to a depraved mind, to do what ought not to be done.

29 They have become filled with every kind of wickedness, evil, greed and depravity. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit and malice. They are gossips,

30 slanderers, God-haters, insolent, arrogant and boastful; they invent ways of doing evil; they disobey their parents;

31 they are senseless, faithless, heartless, ruthless.

32 Although they know God's righteous decree that those who do such things deserve death, they not only continue to do these very things but that looked like apes or something similar, is also to take away all moral responsibility from human beings.

It utterly denies what GOD has said and done, and replaces GOD'S WORD with human and demonic fantasy.

JESUS is the ONE through WHOM all things were made. To deny the full creative work of GOD through JESUS CHRIST, is to deny JESUS CHRIST IS WHO HE really is. And to deny the Lord is to deny His Salvation for you.

1 ¶ In the beginning was the WORD, and the WORD was with GOD, and the WORD was GOD.

2 He was with GOD in the beginning.

3 Through HIM all things were made; without HIM nothing was made that has been made.

If you have a JESUS other than the ONE through WHOM the universe was made and through WHOM our original ancestors were made, then you have a different JESUS to the ONE WHO bled and died for your sins on the cross nearly two thousand years ago just outside Jerusalem.

To deny GOD'S Creation of the universe and all that is in it through HIS only dearly beloved SON, is to deny the SAVIOUR of the human race, WHO rose from the dead three days after HE was crucified.

And such a person can not save you! Only the SON of GOD through WHOM all things were created can save you!

Any morality from that time forward which has a Jesus other than the One through Whom all things were made, is false and only invented by mankind, and not a response to the HEAVENLY FATHER WHO made us in the first place.

Jesus has His apostle Paul write about this two thousand years ago.

16 ¶ I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile.

17 For in the gospel a righteousness from God is revealed, a righteousness that is by faith from first to last, just as it is written: "The righteous will live by faith."

18 The wrath of God is being revealed from heaven against all the godlessness and wickedness of men who suppress the truth by their wickedness,

Of Beavers, Stardust and THE CARPENTER

Who would have thought, that a furry little beaver scurrying around in ancient China, just thousands of years ago, was about to fall into fossilisation, history, and then make the news in the 21st century?

Jumping forward to February 2006, the Chinese News Agency Xinhuanet reports that scientists have discovered a fossil beaver that does not fit in with the standard time scales allowed by theorists for the development of mammals. Chinese and American scientists found the fossil in what may be described as so-called middle Jurassic deposits in China.

Reported Xinhuanet, LOS ANGELES, Feb. 23, 2006

"This new discovery is exciting, commented Thomas Martin, a paleontologist at the Forschungsinstitut Senckenberg in Frankfurt, Germany. It pushes back the mammalian conquest of the waters by more than 100 million years, Martin wrote in a commentary article in the Science journal. "These exciting discoveries may just be a glimpse of what is to come. They dramatically demonstrate how many gaps remain in our knowledge of Mesozoic mammalian diversity" (1)

The positive spin "this new discovery is exciting", glibly covers over a great dilemma for such so-called science. Previously scientific imaginations had conceived that mammals of this complexity did not appear on the earth for another 100 million years. According to some rock-dating scientific mind games (explained below) we are supposed to believe that these beavers were alive 160 million years ago.

The BBC commented on 24th February 2006,

"The mammals of the time were once thought to be largely primitive shrew-like creatures, scuttling at the feet of dinosaurs, and only flourishing when the dinosaurs died out some 65 million years ago."

That tied in with Thomas Martin's statement (above), gives us a clear picture of what Science really knows,

“They dramatically demonstrate how many gaps remain in our knowledge of Mesozoic mammalian diversity.”

The truth is that science does not accurately know what was happening at all, both for the imaginary Mesozoic time period, and every other important point of real biological history.

Imaginary Birthdays for Martian Rocks

Constant statements are made about fossils that have been found in rocks that are claimed to be so many million years old, while in fact science has no actual measuring device, or system of thought, by which to measure any rock's unknown age, with any accuracy or certainty at all. And at all, means at all.

Do not think for a moment that when the cute fossil beavers were found, that they all had nice little collars on them, with a city council registration disk giving the date that they were born; there was nothing about the beavers, the rocks they were found in, or anything else, that can help any kind of science fix a far off date for their existence.

It is all conjecture, and at worse, some of it is even make believe. Fantastically some theorists even made up ages for the rocks brought back from the moon. And they are doing it with the current exploration of Mars by satellite and ground rovers. Some scientists can even imagine birthdays for Martian rocks.

Earth's Geological Time Scale

Even the so-called 'geological time scale' is an invented concept.

No where in the whole world do real rocks accurately follow the levels shown in the 'geological time scale' that you might have been shown in school science.

The scale was actually developed by following a pre-19th century theory on how life was imagined to have developed. With the idea being that the simplest forms of life would be in old rocks, and the more complex forms of life would be in the newer rocks. And that is all it is. A scale developed around a theory, a few hundred years ago, a theory that is unrealistic.

There is no objective evidence that the Earth's earlier rocks will have only simpler life in them—except for the imagined theory that, that is how it might be. And now, that scale based on a theory, is used as evidence for other theories—remember that scientific theories are just sophisticated best guesses, so here you have one best

For a person who wants to live “right”, there are terrible consequences in taking on evolutionary thought. For many it has happened now as a part of their schooling so they had no choice in the matter any way. Evolutionary thought will muck up many areas of life and thought. It touches even into things that we would not consider connected at first, and justifies many sinful approaches to life. For example..

The Lord Jesus taught on marriage in this way.

6 “But at the beginning of creation God ‘made them male and female.’

7 ‘For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.’ So they are no longer two, but one.

9 Therefore what GOD has joined together, let man not separate.”

Mark 10:6-9

From the very beginning of creation, GOD made it that a man and a woman will come together as one flesh, and that they may not be separated by human rules or for human wants and lusts.

Divorce except in the very limited permission that the Lord Jesus gives, is not permissible. And remarriage to another person is only very rarely permitted by GOD under very specific circumstances. And normally the previous marriage partner must first actually be dead.

Note it must be a man and a woman, not a man and a man, nor a woman and a woman. Homosexuality and lesbianism are not permitted by GOD; neither for a follower of JESUS nor a non-CHRISTIAN.

By suppressing the truth of Creation, and promoting evolution, the people pushing evolution are dishonoring the LORD and His words. Jesus said, “.. at the beginning of creation God . . . For this reason ..

Because at the beginning of Creation God made Adam and Eve, male and female, is the reason behind the rest of Jesus' instructions on marriage stand.

To try and undo that God initiated the beginning of creation, and that God made our first ancestors directly, is then to set about destroying the whole moral base of the human race.

The basis of human morality is that GOD made Creation and us at the very beginning. HE is the FATHER.

To say that a non-specific big bang made the universe, and that by some chance processes, humans finally resulted from a line of creatures that crawled out of some ooze somewhere, with recent ancestors

If you have opened your heart to the Creator Himself, you will instead see in His creation, a reflection of His wonderfulness.

For God Himself still intervenes in His creation as He sees fit— not being limited by the Laws He has made for it and us to operate under.

Jesus walked on water, raised stinking dead people from death back to life, and still does miracles through the faith of His followers today.

At the time fo the Tower of Babel, God came down from Heaven to see what mankind was up to, and even changed the shape of our jaw and skull, creating new languages and the ethnic differences.

And who knows when else He has chosen to intervene in what we consider the natural order of things.

Man's science (—the word means knowledge) will always change, but the Lord and His words will never change.

Deity—God is God!

Many people want that there would be a rational approach to explain how God made the universe and life forms like ourselves. And this is where we cross the barrier of what has been made and Who made it.

Before God made the universe there was no universe and God dwells in Eternity. From Eternity or the Highest Heaven, God spoke and created everything.

Before God spoke, there was no universe, no natural order of things, no laws of nature. So God did not make anything according to the laws of nature, He makes the laws of nature! God merely decreed that the universe shall be and it was.

God is supernatural — that is, He is beyond and above all that He has created, all that we call natural.

He simply made everything out of nothing, He did not need anything to initially start to work with at all.

“For this is what the LORD says—he who created the heavens, he is God; he who fashioned and made the earth, he founded it; he did not create it to be empty, but formed it to be inhabited—he says: “I am the LORD, and there is no other.”

Isaiah 45:18

"This is what the LORD says—your Redeemer, who formed you in the womb: I am the LORD, who has made all things, who alone stretched out the heavens, who spread out the earth by myself guess helping other best guesses. The invented time scale helping the invented theories of life's origins, and theories of life's origins helping invent the geological time scale.

If you take the whole planet as a laboratory, then it shows that many of the rocks theorised as being supposed to have only simple life in them, actually prove to have highly complex life in them as well.

So the biggest possible laboratory test for the theory - the whole planet - has not confirmed the theory.

Hear what an expert, John Woodmorappe, has to say about it all. He's talking in scientific jargon, but read what he is saying.

“It has been claimed that the geological column as a faunal succession is not just a hypothetical concept, but a reality, because all Phanerozoic systems exist superposed at a number of locations on the earth. Close examination reveals, however, that even at locations where all ten systems are superposed, the column, as represented by sedimentary-thickness, is mostly missing.

“There is no escaping the fact that the Phanerozoic geologic column remains essentially non-existent. It should be obvious, to all but the most biased observers, that it is the anti-creationists who misrepresent the geologic facts. The geologic column does not exist to any substantive extent, and scientific creationists are correct to point this out.”

(The Geologic Column: Does It Exist? by John Woodmorappe First published in Creation Ex Nihilo Technical Journal 13(2):77–82, 1999 viewable on <http://www.trueorigin.org/geocolumn.asp>)

Why is it all so important?

Various theories have been invented to try and explain away the facts of how life did start, because there are moral and spiritual consequences flowing from the real “origin of the species”, which some people wish to dodge. And so they need to imagine theories to explain away what ancient man did know about what did happen, and what will happen next.

These various theories remain only theories to this day, that is they are unproven. Many scientists are now starting to see that these attempts at replacing the real account of the beginning of all things, will for ever remain only fictional theories, as they are unprovable, in the face of the truth of it all. That is why thinking scientists are now starting to face the realities of what is called “intelligent design”—the reality that everything in the universe shows so much design, and thoughtful design at that, that everything was obviously intelligently designed.

Most of these alternative theories, ignoring the intelligent design of the whole universe, and failing to provide any evidence that support their case, rely on a ridiculous idea—instead of evidence—that even though something is very very unlikely to ever happen (even actually impossible), if you just use strange mathematics, and make up a very very long time for things to happen in, then no matter how impossible the impossible event is, it will come to pass eventually, if only you just wait long enough.

Let's break that down a bit

Some scientists in trying to investigate the origins of life have found that the majority of chemical reactions they need to build up life, could not just happen. These chemical reactions would require very complex situations to exist, and just the right chemicals to come together, in the right way. Also, the chemicals seem to have to 'know' how to come together in the right way, so that life can continue on.

Now (with the exception of evolution it seems) normally the formal 'scientific method' requires that you take observations in reality, make a theory, and then make experiments in the laboratory situation to confirm whether the theory might be an accurate working model of what is actually happening in the real world, or in the universe.

At present in the real world, as could be predicted from the true account of what really happened, no new species are being brought into existence, and no present species are changing wholesale into other new species. That makes a gap for the various evolutionary theories to fall through. However undaunted by the lack of new species coming into existence, or current ones actually really changing, these scientists have hypothesized (in this case guessed) what they think might have happened anyway at the beginning of all things, and of life on Earth. (And yet there is not even a fossil that can unambiguously support such theories!)

As there was no scientist present at the beginning of all things, scientists now can imagine what ever they want to—thinking that no one can contradict them. Even though they can make up what ever they want to, they have not been able to make their fantasies about evolution come to pass in their laboratory tests.

In fact their work so far, suggests that at (their version) of the very beginning of the Earth, the whole environment - in current scientific reckoning - is guessed to have been just too poisonous for life to exist in, let alone supposedly initially make itself. They've resorted to thinking life must have started on the sea

Using our mouse trap example, to survive the mouse trap must catch mice. If any part of the trap is not there, no mice are caught, and the mouse trap dies out.

“Such an organism can not ‘evolve’ bit by bit. All of the bits must always be there or the creature can not live or make off spring. So in an evolutionary sense, the very first creature had to have all of the essential parts or it could not survive and breed.”

And if it could not produce offspring, there could be no evolution to a so called higher level.

The creature could not actually have started any simpler or less complex than the absolute basics it needed to survive at all.

But evolution can not cope with that.

The idea of complex organisms being at the very beginning of life spits in evolution's face. Yet that is where the evidence has taken science.

Charles Darwin and others had no idea of how complex even the 'simplest' one cell life form like bacteria or jellyfish actually are. Yet Darwin, while having then no name for it, knew that this “irreducible complexity” concept, if found to be true, would completely destroy the whole theory of evolution.

Darwin wrote,

“If it could be demonstrated that any complex organ existed which could not possibly have been formed by numerous, successive, slight modifications, my theory would absolutely break down.”

Darwin, Charles (1872)
Origin of Species 6th ed (1988), p.154,
New York University Press, New York

And that is where we stand today. There have not been the zillions of years that all kinds of evolutionary theory require for their approach to have even an impossible chance of success. There is not way to even measure the age of the universe to be able to make such a period of time even seem remotely believable.

The rocks of the earth can not be apportioned dates, and don't follow the same consistent patterns throughout the globe in a way that can help evolutionary theories.

The laws of physics, especially entropy and aspects of thermodynamics, do not help any evolutionary theory, in fact work against them all.

And bio-chemistry can not make any form of life in a test-tube, nor in any other kind of laboratory.

The physical chemical and energy building blocks of life do not just throw themselves together and produce the highly complex microscopic pieces of 'machinery' that make the bigger aspects of life work.

there are unexpected dead ends, where you can not go any further back in how something useful is put together. This is called "irreducible complexity".

Michael Behe (quoted two pages back) explains this using the illustration of a mouse trap, as if it were a biological creature.

Imagine that to survive the mouse trap must catch mice, or it dies out.

Now in a basic mouse trap like the one back over the page, every single part of the mouse trap is essential to its functioning. Any part at all that is missing, means that the trap can not catch a single mouse.

There is a simple complexity in the trap in that several things have to be present and work together, but you can not make the trap any less complex, everything must be there. So it has a complexity that can not be reduced. Or if you like, in the scientific jargon it has an "irreducible complexity".

In life at the molecular level, there are an incredible number of units that do jobs essential to life, that are just like this. They are highly specialised collections of proteins, that do amazing things. The parts of each of these units, for all the world, work like wee tiny machines, hence they are referred to as "molecular machines". When you look at representations of what an electron microscope can see of these "molecular machines" you are staring at ingenuously crafted pieces of machinery, just as you would expect to see an engineer design in his workshop. Except these things are so small that they can only be seen with very sophisticated microscopes.

The building blocks of these machines, are complex groupings of chemicals. So complex and yet following some sorts of patterns of codes in how they work, patterns based on common characteristics. These are referred to as "language based chemical codes". They follow patterns like a spoken language or a computer language.

They have rules about how the chemical "words" can be put together just like grammar in a human language, or syntax to a computer programmer, or a knitting pattern to some one working with wool.

For a believer this is no surprise at all as they know that in the very beginning God spoke to create each thing in sequence. So it is no surprise that what He created bears resemblance to language at its most fundamental levels. In fact many scientists have shown that the whole universe resonates like various sound waves.

For evolution this "irreducible complexity" is a major problem. In reality it is catastrophic.

floor around hot water vents from beneath, or fallen in stones from space above (which begs the question). Earth they think was just too poisonous to be a nursery for life as we know it. But then they have the wrong model for the beginning of the planet any way, as we shall see further on.

So, given the most high powered computers that the world has ever seen, and all the chemicals you could ever want to play with, and often all at tax payers' expense, these scientists have been unable to make even the most simple living organism, not even a one celled life form.

In practical realities nothing at all has changed, even with new theories, since Sir Fred Hoyle British physicist and astronomer, first said,

"If there were a basic principle of matter which somehow drove organic systems toward life, its existence should easily be demonstrable in the laboratory. One could, for instance, take a swimming bath to represent the primordial soup. Fill it with any chemicals of a non-biological nature you please.

"Pump any gases over it, or through it, you please, and shine any kind of radiation on it that takes your fancy. Let the experiment proceed for a year and see how many of those 2,000 enzymes [proteins produced by living cells] have appeared in the bath. I will give the answer, and so save the time and trouble and expense of actually doing the experiment. You would find nothing at all, except possibly for a tarry sludge composed of amino acids and other simple organic chemicals.

"How can I be so confident of this statement? Well, if it were otherwise, the experiment would long since have been done and would be well-known and famous throughout the world.

"The cost of it would be trivial compared to the cost of landing a man on the Moon... . In short there is not a shred of objective evidence to support the hypothesis that life began in an organic soup here on the Earth."

When $1 + 1$ doesn't equal 2 — Tricky Maths

So what do you do if you can not prove or see it happening?

Well they use some theoretical 'higher' mathematics. The tricky part is that this so-called mathematics alleges that if you just wait long enough even the impossible must happen(!)

If they can get you to swallow that, they then say that life only forms itself by chance every now and then, acknowledge that it is sort of “miraculous”, and that it must take very long periods of time for the event (as they call it) to take place. Even zillions of years.

And as completely impossible as it is, that intelligent life can come from random chemical reactions, given that long a period of time, it would according to their strange mathematics, just have to happen one day, by mere chance.

So to make this theory even seem viable, they have to imagine that they have billions and billions of years to play around with.

For that to seem real it has been necessary to try and make the earth, and the rest of the creation, zillions of years old.

If you can say that the earth is zillions of years old, then the bogus mathematics that says “if you wait just long enough even the impossible must definitely happen”, can come into play. And hey presto - you’ll have life as we know it on the way.

But not surprisingly given what you have just read, the whole Earth, rock, and Universe dating set up that is used to create the illusions of these long periods of time, is entirely bogus as well. Again theory propping up theory, propping up more theories—and no hard facts.

Not Science Like That Which Makes TVs Work, or Planes Fly.

We are not here talking about classical and applied science — the kinds of science that give us technologies that take men to the moon or design new and better cars, or medicines. Things that we know work. We are here for the most part talking about so-called science that is abstract, theoretical, that has no helpful application in life, but can harm life. It is about false science that forms people’s opinions about the value of human life, medical decisions, and your place in the earth and universe—And how you relate to God.

Almost unbelievably even real scientists in differing departments of science are often unaware that another department of science is basing its work only on the theorists, and ignorantly use the information coming forward, as hard facts.

So the geologist trusts the biology department to have real evidence for evolution, and the super-physicists to have real knowledge of the beginning of all things, while the biologist trusts the geo-chemist or related field to give real old dates for samples, while the geo-chemist trusts the fossil geologist to give accurate positions for old index fossils. And the evolutionary are all too shallow to cope with the incredible facts that we unearth about how we and everything else is put together.

“It is a shock to us in the twentieth century to discover, from observations science has made, that the fundamental mechanisms of life cannot be ascribed to natural selection [evolution], and therefore were designed. But we must deal with our shock as best we can and go on.”

Molecular Machines:
Experimental Support for the Design Inference
Michael J. Behe, 1994 C.S. Lewis Society, Cambridge University

Modern Science through glasses tinted with evolutionary haze is always going to try interpret what turns up in its quests for origins, as hopeful stepping stones to confirm its belief in Evolution.

Even James Shipiro, mentioned earlier (page 19,) has turned what he thinks he has seen in the molecular level of life to try and give a mechanism for evolution to take place.

And evolutionary science will always cast that confusing shadow over all it comes near.

As time passes, you will hear many announcements that ‘science’ has found this and that, and then you might see a small note in a newspaper or on the web later saying that the new ‘fact’ has been disproved or severely discredited.

The Intelligent Design debate has brought keenly into focus many of the catastrophic failures of the multitude of evolutionary models. If you are a person who is yet to become a Christian and have read this far, then Intelligent Design concepts like the following create a big hole in man’s science that needs the CREATOR to fill it.

“Experimental tests reveal that the biosphere is full of language-based chemical codes and complex molecular machines. There is no known cause for such structures other than intelligence.”

Casey Luskin, co-author,
“Traipsing Into Evolution”,
Discovery Institute (March 30, 2006)

What are, ‘language based chemical codes and complex molecular machines’?

The part of science that deals with the very basic building blocks of life (molecular biology) is finding that makes this great promise which has two conditions in it . . . can you spot the conditions?

“But if we walk in the light, as HE is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of JESUS, HIS SON, purifies us from all sin.”

1 John 1:7

To start on that path you first have to be born of GOD’S SPIRIT. JESUS described it in this way,

3 In reply JESUS declared, "I tell you the truth, no-one can see the kingdom of God unless he is born again."

4 "How can a man be born when he is old?" Nicodemus asked. "Surely he cannot enter a second time into his mother’s womb to be born!"

5 JESUS answered, "I tell you the truth, no-one can enter the kingdom of GOD unless he is born of water and the Spirit.

6 Flesh gives birth to flesh, but the SPIRIT gives birth to spirit.

7 You should not be surprised at my saying, ‘You must be born again.’

8 The wind blows wherever it pleases. You hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the SPIRIT.”

John 3:3-8

Repent from your sins and trust in Christ!

23 Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshippers will worship the FATHER in spirit and truth, for they are the kind of worshippers the FATHER seeks.

24 GOD is spirit, and his worshippers must worship in spirit and in truth."

John 4

Work with GOD in the most important work of Creation that HE can do for you personally right now!

“Therefore, if anyone is in CHRIST, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!”

2 Corinthians 5:17

The Wonder of the One Who Made Us

We started looking at the efforts of unenlightened mankind, groping around in the dark, looking for truth. And we saw that man’s best efforts anthropologist can make up what ever they want with it all!

But only recently have all these scientists been discovering that it is all a big circle with no solid stuff in the middle. Just pseudo-factoids based on each other’s ideas.. Nothing more than a circular system of thought that seems to confirm itself.

In our minds we need to separate out that kind of thing from the kind of science that makes your TV remote, Ipod, or electric light work. Split that real thing off from this kind of fantasy stuff.

The BBC type of documentaries that show animations of this fantasy evolutionary science, as if they were real film footage, do great harm to the thoughts of people who do not yet know better.

Unashamedly presenting fantastic theories about the beginning of the Universe and of living creatures and man, such evolutionary films and animations presented as real life (like an animal safari, scientific report, or other real documentary), mislead many into thinking that reality is being presented—when it is only totally unconfirmed theory.

“ . . . there are so many sources of possible error or misinterpretation in radiometric dating that most of the dates are discarded and never used at all! Only those are used which bear some similarity to one another—and, more important, to the 19th-century theory.”
P168 'Evolution Cruncher'

Out Dated Rock Dating

Here are some little publicised facts concerning theoretical dating from John Woodmorappe,

“We sometimes hear the claim that the dates must be valid because they give dates in the millions and billions of years. But modern lavas frequently give anomalously old dates in the millions to billions of years. For example:

Several 20th century andesite lava flows from Mt. Ngauruhoe, New Zealand gave potassium-argon ‘dates’ from under 0.27 to 3.5 million years.

A 1986 dacite lava dome at Mt St Helens volcano gave a ‘date’ of method as  $0.35 \pm 0.5$  million years old”<sup>(3)</sup>

Living people saw the recent Mt. St. Helens eruption, but such “pseudo-science” would say that the event might have happened half a million years earlier, or might not have taken place at all yet! That’s what the + or - ½ a million years bit means.

Many thinking scientists are now asking these kinds of questions, writes Andrew Snelling<sup>(4)</sup>,

“How can we trust the use of this same ‘dating’ method on rocks whose ages we don’t know? If the method fails on rocks when we have an independent eye-witness account, then why should we trust it on other rocks where there are no independent historical cross-checks?”

What this means is that rocks that have been formed in recently observed volcanic eruptions of exactly known dates are found in the scientific dating techniques to be hundreds of thousands, millions or even billions of years old, or potentially not even to have been formed yet!

So thinking scientists are effectively saying, how can we trust rock dates for the supposed deep past, when we know they do not even work for situations where we do know the real actual ages of the rocks already, from straight forward human observation of the actual eruptions?

The answer is that we can not, and must not, trust such dating techniques.

While studying university geology in the 1970s/80s this writer recalls episodes where ‘fossils’ were scientifically dredged from a harbour bed, and dated (at the government’s then laboratories) at tens of thousands of years old. Yet when lifted from the harbour bed these shellfish were alive, with only one year or two years current growth showing.

The idea of life being found in fossils said to be tens of thousands, millions or billions of years old, is then a scientific theory tale, a sophisticated scientific urban myth.

You can not date a rock on earth or form space and say that it is zillions of years old. There are very good scientific reasons for this that others have written up very well, and any ‘good’ scientist in that field will tell you what the real problems are with such supposed fossil and rock dating techniques.

Here is an extraordinary series of quotes regarding C-14 dating from Vance Ferrell (B.A., M.A) in the ‘Evolutionary Cruncher’ (p. 185, 2001 ed.)

“It may come as a shock to some, but fewer than 50 percent of the radiocarbon dates from geological and archaeological samples in northeastern North America have been adopted as ‘acceptable’ by investigators.”—

(J. Ogden III, “The Use and Abuse of Radiocarbon,” in Annals of the New York Academy of Science, Vol. 288, 1977, pp. 167-173.)

Flint and Rubin declare that radiocarbon dating is consistent within itself. What they do not mention is that the published C-14 dates are only “consistent” because the very large number of radiocarbon dates which are not consistent are discarded!

And the same HOLY SPIRIT living inside you will also help you grow good fruit in your life. These are known as the fruit of love and are described like this.

16 So I say, live by the SPIRIT, and you will not gratify the desires of the sinful nature. For the sinful nature desires what is contrary to the SPIRIT, and the SPIRIT what is contrary to the sinful nature. They are in conflict with each other, so that you do not do what you want. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under law [Old Testament].

19 The acts of the sinful nature are obvious: sexual immorality, impurity and debauchery; idolatry and witchcraft; hatred, discord, jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition, dissensions, factions and envy; drunkenness, orgies, and the like. I warn you, as I did before, that those who live like this will not inherit the kingdom of GOD.

22 But the fruit of the SPIRIT is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law. Those who belong to CHRIST JESUS have crucified the sinful nature with its passions and desires.

25 Since we live by the SPIRIT, let us keep in step with the SPIRIT. Let us not become conceited, provoking and envying each other.

Galatians 5:16-26

GOD wants to work with you to make you more and more like His SON JESUS as time goes by.

HE literally wants to create a new man inside you, made in the image of His Son Jesus.

The LORD does not want to take who you are away, just for you to turn from sin and sinful attitudes, release your ego to His will, and to live from a heart filled with His love, by His truth, with your hope set on the Eternal life he promises in the forgiveness of your sins.

The second great thing He provides that is essential to us, is other believers. GOD wants you to regularly gather with other believers hear teaching even contribute by His SPIRIT’s gifts and leading, and be trained to be one of LORD JESUS’ followers. And to love one and other.

He wants His other children to become your brothers and sisters, your new family in CHRIST. And HE

New Creation in CHRIST

What do you need to do to be ready to be ready to be part of GOD's new creation and avoid the eternal burning flames of the Lake of Fire?

As described earlier you need to believe in what JESUS CHRIST has done by dying for you on the cross and GOD raising Him from the dead, and set yourself to follow and obey His every command.

JESUS wants to turn you into a loving caring person who no longer lives for sinful desires but to know and do what pleases your new HEAVENLY FATHER.

GOD knows that you can not do this by yourself in your own strength and has provided two important and different things to help you.

First HE wants you to receive the empowering of His HOLY SPIRIT. That means that the HOLY SPIRIT HIMSELF will powerfully indwell you. Not only sealing you like an envelope to keep you safe for the Day that JESUS returns, but also in a very special way giving you the strength, and special spiritual ability to live the way that GOD wants you to.

To do this GOD most often gives people a special prayer language called the gift of tongues. HE may also give you other gifts to help other people, like prophecy, healing and even the ability to do miracles to lead people to know CHRIST.

3 In reply Jesus declared, "I tell you the truth, no-one can see the kingdom of God unless he is born again."

4 "How can a man be born when he is old?" Nicodemus asked. "Surely he cannot enter a second time into his mother's womb to be born!"

5 Jesus answered, "I tell you the truth, no-one can enter the kingdom of God unless he is born of water and the Spirit.

6 Flesh gives birth to flesh, but the Spirit gives birth to spirit.

7 You should not be surprised at my saying, 'You must be born again.'

8 The wind blows wherever it pleases. You hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit."

John 3

Two researchers from the University of Uppsala, Sweden, in their report to the Twelfth Nobel Symposium, said this:

"C-14 dating was being discussed at a symposium on the prehistory of the Nile Valley. A famous American colleague, Professor Brew, briefly summarized a common attitude among archaeologists toward it, as follows:

'If a C-14 date supports our theories, we put it in the main text. If it does not entirely contradict them, we put it in a footnote. And if it is completely 'out-of-date,' we just drop it'—

(T. Save-Soderbergh and Ingrid U. Inaccurate Dating Methods 185 Olsson, "C-14 Dating and Egyptian Chronology," Radiocarbon Variations and Absolute Chronology, ed. *Ingrid U. Olsson (1970), p. 35 [also in Pensee, 3(1): 44].)

The amazing thing is that no long range dating technique could be developed that would actually work, as it could never be accurately confirmed, certainly not for dates over thousands of years. The "Most of the species of maidenhair are extinct; indeed they served as index fossils for their strata until one was found alive." "The youngest fossil coelacanth is about sixty million years old. Since one was rediscovered off Madagascar, they are no longer claimed as 'index fossils'— fossils which tell you that all other fossils in that layer are the same ripe old age."

physics can not be shown to be stable, the long term rules by which it operates are unknown, assumptions about conditions and samples are ill founded, and given that there is no way to objectively confirm such a thing—it is therefore entirely illogical.

The whole idea of being able to look at layers of rocks (strata) and work out the ages of the fossils from their positions in the layering is also impossible. Certain key fossils (called index fossils) are supposed to be able to date the rocks in which they are found. But again, this is based on other theories and reasonings, not hard facts, and the actual realities of it are not consistent. Finally, as a death knell to the whole thing, the layers and their fossil contents simply do not follow a consistent pattern around the whole world.

What has happened?

Theorists currently work on an idea that throughout time everything has happened in the same way with rocks, nothing different or sudden has taken place. That the way things happen today, is exactly the same way that things have always happened. This theory is an assumption, called "uniformitarianism". It does not allow for the actual cataclysmic and "one off" events that have taken place during the world's existence. The facts are opposite to this theory. Many important fossil finds are not found gently laid down in rocks, but set in rock during obvious turmoil, and all bundled together, during a highly energetic geological event. The vast majority of rocks that are near the surface of the Earth were formed under or through the action of water, and often apparently quite suddenly.

For example so many ethnic groups in the world today can recall aspects from their ancient traditions of the earth being deluged by the cosmic Flood that threatened to wipe out the whole human race, covering even the highest mountains of those days.

http://www.custance.org/Library/Volume9/Part\_II/Introduction.html
and
<http://www.nwcreation.net/noahlegends.html>

Water poured down on the Earth from above the atmosphere, and came up from the great depths to the surface. Continents moved, new high mountain ranges formed, volcanism flourished, with the whole surface of the earth being violently reshaped.

This sudden universal Flood caused the instant fossilisation of ginormous quantities of living things, and the sudden formation of many of the rock structures, coal and oil deposits, that we see today. Only one family, the ancestors of us all, survived.

Geology doesn't span millions or billions, but only thousands of years. And the whole Earth transforming Flood, far less than one year. Yet today's science chooses to ignore the realities of this universal Flood, even the details that plainly stare them in the face. Why? Because uniformitarianism states that as we do not see such a one-off world wide Flood today, "it therefore scientifically must never have happened in the past". (Flat earth thinking?) Yet even remote valley and mountain dwelling peoples have clear accounts of 'The Flood', handed down to them from without cost from the spring of the water of life. He who overcomes will inherit all this, and I will be his GOD and he will be my son. But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the vile, the murderers, the sexually immoral, those who practise magic arts, the idolaters and all liars—their place will be in the fiery lake of burning sulphur. This is the second death."

We must not limit our understanding with an outdated idea, 'uniformitarianism', that assumes that only things that are happening now, tell us what kinds of things have happened in the past. Obviously the past has sometimes been very different to what we see happening today.

9 ¶ One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and said to me, "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of THE LAMB."

10 And he carried me away in the SPIRIT to a mountain great and high, and showed me the Holy City, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from GOD. It shone with the glory of GOD, and its brilliance was like that of a very precious jewel, like a jasper, clear as crystal. It had a great, high wall with twelve gates, and with twelve angels at the gates. On the gates were written the names of the twelve tribes of Israel. There were three gates on the east, three on the north, three on the south and three on the west. The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the names of the twelve apostles of the LAMB.

GOD's Works of Creation

GOD's works of Creation have never stopped. HE has always intervened when HE sees fit, as at the Tower of Babel when He changed the shape of different peoples jaws and skulls and created the ethnic races and languages that we see amongst human beings today.

When GOD does medical miracles HE often creates missing bits and pieces out of nothing.

And at the very end of all things, JESUS CHRIST's words will Judge angels and the human race, bringing each human up from the dead before HIM to give account for their lives, and everyone not found in the Book of Life will be thrown in a body that can never die or decay, into the burning lake of fire that GOD originally made only for the Devil and his angels, to be tormented in extreme agony for eternity.

Then GOD will dispose of the present Earth and Heavens, and create a new Earth and Heavens, where only the righteous in CHRIST shall live with HIM for ever!

GOD's people, the city he loves. But fire came down from heaven and devoured them. And the devil, who deceived them, was thrown into the lake of burning sulphur, where the beast and the false prophet had been thrown. They will be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 ¶ Then I saw a great white throne and him who was seated on it. Earth and sky fled from his presence, and there was no place for them. And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged according to what they had done as recorded in the books. The sea gave up the dead that were in it, and death and Hades gave up the dead that were in them, and each person was judged according to what he had done.

14 Then death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. The lake of fire is the second death.

15 If anyone's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

21:1 ¶ Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea.

2 I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband.

3 And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Now the dwelling of GOD is with men, and he will live with them. They will be His people, and GOD HIMSELF will be with them and be their GOD. He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away."

5 He who was seated on the throne said, "I am making everything new!" Then he said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true."

6 He said to me: "It is done. I AM THE ALPHA AND THE OMEGA, THE BEGINNING AND THE END. To him who is thirsty I will give to drink our common ancestors—Noah and his family.

When you see purported television documentaries, articles on the internet, or books saying that a certain rock or animal is from zillions of years ago, don't believe it, for there is no way of showing that a rock is even ten thousand years old.

Where does this leave us?

Remember the bogus mathematics referred to earlier, which says if you watch for long enough, even the impossible will happen? That mathematics needs zillions of years. The bogus rock and fossil dating techniques, of this certain kind of so-called science, are designed to satisfy that bogus mathematics and what people want to use it for, and not to reflect reality.

Pause and consider the implications of this.

We simply in reality do not have zillions of years for certain scientists to play their impossibility mathematics through, to get the results that they want us to believe in—that life exists by chance of itself, and that it has no DESIGNER.

These time scales become particularly important once scientists move on to try an make evolution work for our race—mankind.

The large time scales are essential to evolutionary theories, because no where in the world, or the laboratory, is there any kind of real evolution going on today, only selection of qualities within already established species and existing genes. Nothing useful and new is being naturally added in nature to any species and never has been.

WITH THE HUNDREDS AND THOUSANDS (MILLION+) FOSSILS COLLECTED FROM THE EARTH — NOT ONE UNEQUIVOCAL BIT OF EVIDENCE OF EVOLUTION!

So as it can't be seen today, and can not be seen in the fossils, such scientists need really long periods of time to play with, so that they can say that evolution only happens every now and then, and that it is unlikely that it will fully show in the fossils from the past. That you might just find a bone or something here and there, or something that will sort of point to evolution, and be as good as real proof of it. You have to be open to evolution before you can see any hint of it - it's a faith system of belief.

Under this system all the bones do not even have to be found really close to each other to build a skeleton!

So much is made in the media whenever a so called discovery is made of bones said to link humans to other animals in the imaginary evolution family tree of creatures.

What is not well reported is when the scientists in question have to go back on their original press statements.

The truth is that there are no bones in museums or other institutions that actually scientifically link humans to any other type of organism on the earth, living or dead.

The fragments of bones for iconic representatives of all of the supposed ancestors of the human race would not even fill a human coffin. There just isn't the evidence for it all.

We are unique. We do share many chemical and genetic building blocks, and physical design features with other creatures, but that does not relate us. We merely have a common DESIGNER.

Simplistically put, you share many properties with the water in a swimming pool, perhaps even with the swimming pool itself! An incredible amount of you is actually water, and the calcium in your bones would be the same as the calcium that might be in the concrete the pool is made of. The joints in your elbows might be similar to the joints in the pool's filtering mechanism! Does that mean that you are related to a swimming pool? Obviously not.

Whales, Antelopes, Camels and Giraffes—A Common Ancestor?

As unbelievable as it may seem, there are otherwise sensible people out there who can see evolutionary links for themselves between Whales, Antelopes, Camels, and Giraffes—yes—Whales!

There are scientists who want you to believe that antelopes and whales are close cousins. Because they allegedly share some similar bone joint designs and genetic features.

Listen to what John Pojeta, Jr. (Smithsonian Institute) and Dale A. Springer (paleontologist and Professor of Geosciences at Bloomsburg University, PA USA.) had to say in 2001,

“The trail of whale evolution begins in Paleocene time, about 60 mya [million years ago], with a group of even-toed, hoofed, trotting, scavenging carnivorous mammals . . .”

It is all sincerely believed by some scientists, but truly it's the stuff of theory tales . . .

19 Then I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies gathered together to make war against the rider on the horse and his army. But the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who had performed the miraculous signs on his behalf. With these signs he had deluded those who had received the mark of the beast and worshipped his image. The two of them were thrown alive into the fiery lake of burning sulphur. The rest of them were killed with the sword that came out of the mouth of the rider on the horse, and all the birds gorged themselves on their flesh.

20:1 ¶ And I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key to the Abyss and holding in his hand a great chain. He seized the dragon, that ancient serpent, who is the devil, or Satan, and bound him for a thousand years. He threw him into the Abyss, and locked and sealed it over him, to keep him from deceiving the nations any more until the thousand years were ended. After that, he must be set free for a short time.

4 I saw thrones on which were seated those who had been given authority to judge. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony for JESUS and because of the word of GOD. They had not worshipped the beast or his image and had not received his mark on their foreheads or their hands. They came to life and reigned with CHRIST for a thousand years. (The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were ended.) This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy are those who have part in the first resurrection. The second death has no power over them, but they will be priests of GOD and of CHRIST and will reign with him for a thousand years.

7 When the thousand years are over, Satan will be released from his prison and will go out to deceive the nations in the four corners of the earth—Gog and Magog—to gather them for battle. In number they are like the sand on the seashore. They marched across the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of 40 Two men will be in the field; one will be taken and the other left. Two women will be grinding with a hand mill; one will be taken and the other left.

42 "Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your LORD will come.

43 But understand this: If the owner of the house had known at what time of night the thief was coming, he would have kept watch and would not have let his house be broken into.

44 So you also must be ready, because the SON OF MAN will come at an hour when you do not expect him.

When JESUS returns to the Earth, He will bodily raise from the dead all those who passed on from this life trusting HIM in full assurance of faith in His resurrection from the dead.

They will be carried by GOD's angels up to meet JESUS as HE returns in the air above this planet.

The Return of JESUS and all that follows, is described in Revelations chapter 19 forward..

11 ¶ I saw heaven standing open and there before me was a white horse, whose rider is called FAITHFUL AND TRUE. With justice HE judges and makes war. His eyes are like blazing fire, and on his head are many crowns. HE has a name written on him that no-one knows but he himself. HE is dressed in a robe dipped in blood, and his name is THE WORD OF GOD.

14 The armies of heaven were following HIM, riding on white horses and dressed in fine linen, white and clean. Out of HIS mouth comes a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations. "He will rule them with an iron sceptre." He treads the winepress of the fury of the wrath of GOD ALMIGHTY.

16 On his robe and on his thigh he has this name written: KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun, who cried in a loud voice to all the birds flying in mid-air, "Come, gather together for the great supper of GOD, so that you may eat the flesh of kings, generals, and mighty men, of horses and their riders, and the flesh of all people, free and slave, small and great."

"Once upon a time, long long ago, children, there lived an antelope like animal called Anna.

"Anna loved running and springing across the African savannah, munching leaves and eating grass, and just standing warming herself in the sunlight.

"Then unexpectedly, one day, while looking in a lake and seeing fish freely swimming around, she thought 'how lovely it would be to be able to freely swim like a fish'. She told her cousin Jane the Giraffe about this.

"The Giraffe was getting a sore neck having to reach up to the tree tops to eat leaves, and then having to bend so low to drink water. The very next time Jane the Giraffe had a drink she did see that the fish looked, oh so free, and happy.

"So both Anna and Jane decided to turn themselves into carnivores, grow different teeth so they could eat meat, and become like a fish—to swim freely, in the far away ocean. They travelled to the distant sea, and standing on the waters edge of a beautiful beach, together they made a genetic-change wish.

"Then all of a sudden, an Evolutionary Theory appeared, and by the power of Darwinian non-sense granted them their genetic-change wish, and they turned into Whales!

That's why every time you look at a Whale, children, you can force yourself to see how it is related to an antelope, or a giraffe or perhaps even a camel.

"So, you also must be very careful about what you might wish for while you are looking at fish swimming around. Or you too could be turned into a Whale and be chased all over the ocean by Japanese (scientist) fishermen trying to serve you up for dinner in a Tokyo restaurant."

How do good scientists end up in such fairy tale experiences?

They have carried forward an idea that everyone knows works within human families and applied it to an area that it is not justified or intended to be used for.

Your aunty or uncle might have similar hair to you, or eyes that look the same. Your cousin may look and sound just like your grandfather.

These are normal expectations between related people. Why it works is because we are from the same race, we are all part of mankind.

Where this kind of thing does not work is when you apply it to similarities that can only be seen with an electron microscope, similarities of the building blocks of life that often share features across the species boundaries.

These physical realities exist because of how the universe was put together in the first place and the physical and essential rules by which life must operate. And the way the genetic code is designed to work. That is why there will be similarities across unrelated species occupying the same space.

The same rules of physics apply to physical animals as to other physical objects. Four legs is a good design for beds, chairs and long animals like cows or dogs or cats. And the same physical rules provide for cars to be extremely stable when fitted with four wheels. Does that relate cars to cats, beds to dogs, or chairs to cows.

The similar designs were chosen to operate within the wisdom that the universe was made and works under.

It's like the swimming pool example given earlier. Just because microscopic things are similar, that doesn't mean you are related to a swimming pool. Just because you have two eyes does not mean that you are related to all animals that have two eyes. Having two eyes is a necessity for beings that are to move in a 3-D (three dimensional) world. It lets us see depth and distance accurately, and work out where things exactly are.

The common design comes from having a common DESIGNER WHO understands the nature of the space He has by His wisdom given for us to exist in. By His knowledge He designed things to work, and both for us and sighted animals, two eyes and not just one is a necessity for safe and fast movement in a 3-D universe, in all environments - land, water, and air.

Physical similarities show relationship within a species. People who look like your uncle may well to you, 'Look, here is the CHRIST!' or, 'There he is!' do not believe it. For false Christs and false prophets will appear and perform great signs and miracles to deceive even the elect—if that were possible. See, I have told you ahead of time.

26 "So if anyone tells you, 'There HE is, out in the desert,' do not go out; or, 'Here HE is, in the inner rooms,' do not believe it.

27 For as lightning that comes from the east is visible even in the west, so will be the coming of the SON OF MAN.

28 Wherever there is a carcass, there the vultures will gather.

29 "Immediately after the distress of those days "the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from the sky, and the heavenly bodies will be shaken.'

30 "At that time the sign of the SON OF MAN will appear in the sky, and all the nations of the earth will mourn. They will see the SON OF MAN coming on the clouds of the sky, with power and great glory. And HE will send his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other.

32 ¶ "Now learn this lesson from the fig-tree: As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. Even so, when you see all these things, you know that it is near, right at the door. I tell you the truth, this generation [or race] will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened. Heaven and earth will pass away, but MY words will never pass away.

36 "No-one knows about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the SON, but only the FATHER. As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the SON OF MAN. For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark; and they knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away. That is how it will be at the coming of the SON OF MAN.

up, just as in fact you are doing.

And earlier on Paul adds this information about the Antichrist . .

1 ¶ Concerning the coming of our LORD JESUS CHRIST and our being gathered to him, we ask you, brothers, not to become easily unsettled or alarmed by some prophecy, report or letter supposed to have come from us, saying that the day of the LORD has already come.

3 ¶ Don't let anyone deceive you in any way, for that day will not come until the rebellion occurs and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the man doomed to destruction. HE will oppose and will exalt himself over everything that is called GOD or is worshipped, so that he sets himself up in GOD's temple, proclaiming himself to be GOD.

5 Don't you remember that when I was with you I used to tell you these things?

6 And now you know what is holding him back, so that he may be revealed at the proper time. For the secret power of lawlessness is already at work; but the one who now holds it back will continue to do so till he is taken out of the way. And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the LORD JESUS will overthrow with the breath of his mouth and destroy by the splendour of His coming.

9 The coming of the lawless one will be in accordance with the work of Satan displayed in all kinds of counterfeit miracles, signs and wonders, and in every sort of evil that deceives those who are perishing. They perish because they refused to love the truth and so be saved.

11 For this reason GOD sends them a powerful delusion so that they will believe the lie and so that all will be condemned who have not believed the truth but have delighted in wickedness.

A true warning to be with JESUS! The LORD JESUS describes it like this . .

21 For then there will be great distress, unequalled from the beginning of the world until now—and never to be equalled again. If those days had not been cut short, no-one would survive, but for the sake of the elect those days will be shortened.

23 At that time if anyone says prove to be related. However, just going on functional or microscopic genetic and chemical appearances does not work for relating you to swimming pools, apes and monkeys, or other non humans. It is breaking the genetic trans-species boundary that was put there at the beginning.

For the same reason, microscopic genetic or bone likenesses do not relate antelopes, camels and giraffes—all to whales!

Similar cake recipes, ingredients, and ovens, make similar cakes.

The fact is that what we do know about the genetic code, tells us that it mathematically defines the qualities and forms for each living organism that it holds the blue print for. It's a code that uses certain rules to define how an organism is to build and run itself. It should not be a surprise then that the code pattern for similar looking features of different animals, will look similar in the code.

Similar genetic code instructs life how to build similar physical features and capabilities. Similar genetic code building similar animal features then, does not by itself even have to suggest an evolutionary process. The marvel is that evolution can not make any genetic code.

Instead the code does evidence intelligent design, not in a random or self generating way. As from the beginning, organisms did not make or change their own genetic code, their genetic code defines them. It was given to them by the Creator.

“A Genetic Change Wish”

It might now not surprise you to learn that scientists do not even have a valid working model for how an animal or a population of animals would realistically change into a completely different species. Or how something that had no sight could invent an eye for it self. When you view the theories and models by which these things are imagined to be possible you are left somewhat surprised that any other scientist takes them seriously.

Even the evolutionary work of James A. Shapiro (Department of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology, University of Chicago ) has only shown the incredible wonder and deep level of the amazing way that living things are constructed, and able to adapt within their own life times to changing circumstances. (See following article http://shapiro.bsd.uchicago.edu/21st\_Cent\_View\_Evol.html)

In the fable about Anna and Jane written above, the two animals make a genetic change wish. And that is what scientists who support evolution, are still doing today.

There is no evidence for the depth of dynamic genetic activity required, taking place any where in the whole of this created Earth, that would even hint at making possible how something like an antelope could turn into something like a whale, no matter how long you give for it to supposedly to have happened.

There are just no genetic path ways or bio-chemical mechanisms in there for it to happen. It doesn't happen in laboratories today and it has never happened in the world in the past or now.

Self Falsifying

To get around this problem the theory has shifted ground to say that it does not need to be proved at all! Here is a quote, summarizing this bizarre sidestepping of reality, from the Voice of America's special web page promoting Evolution:

“Isn't evolution just a theory that remains unproven?”

“In science, a theory is a rigorously tested statement of general principles that explains observable and recorded aspects of the world. A scientific theory therefore describes a higher level of understanding that ties ”facts” together. A scientific theory stands until proven wrong -- it is never proven correct. The Darwinian theory of evolution has withstood the test of time and thousands of scientific experiments; nothing has disproved it since Darwin first proposed it more than 150 years ago. Indeed, many scientific advances, in a range of scientific disciplines including physics, geology, chemistry, and molecular biology, have supported, refined, and expanded evolutionary theory far beyond anything Darwin could have imagined.

Voice of America (June 2006)
<http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/evolution/library/faq/cat01.html>
(c)2001 WGBH Educational Foundation and Clear Blue Sky Productions, Inc.

Under this line of reasoning anything that you want to make up or claim, is acceptable especially if you claim anything - that can not be proven wrong.

For example - "there are invisible little green men at the bottom of the garden" -it can not be proven wrong there for it is correct(!)

The VOA article is incorrect when it says that a "theory stands until proven wrong", a theory can only come out of speculation and conjecture and "stand" when it is proven right! The Evolutionary approach reported by the VOA makes it sound like truth is ever changing and uncertain.

However, absolute truth does exist and it can be known and acted upon. To hold otherwise leads morally to the evil of situational ethics and the painful horrors of the 'end 14 We believe that JESUS died and rose again and so we believe that GOD will bring with JESUS those who have fallen asleep in him.

15 According to the LORD's own word, we tell you that we who are still alive, who are left till the coming of the LORD, will certainly not precede those who have fallen asleep.

16 For the LORD himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of GOD, and the dead in CHRIST will rise first.

17 After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the LORD for ever.

18 Therefore encourage each other with these words.

1 ¶ Now, brothers, about times and dates we do not need to write to you,

2 for you know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night.

3 While people are saying, "Peace and safety," destruction will come on them suddenly, as labour pains on a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

4 But you, brothers, are not in darkness so that this day should surprise you like a thief.

5 You are all sons of the light and sons of the day. We do not belong to the night or to the darkness.

6 ¶ So then, let us not be like others, who are asleep, but let us be alert and self-controlled.

7 For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, get drunk at night.

8 But since we belong to the day, let us be self-controlled, putting on faith and love as a breastplate, and the hope of salvation as a helmet.

9 For GOD did not appoint us to suffer wrath but to receive salvation through our LORD JESUS CHRIST.

10 HE died for us so that, whether we are awake or asleep, we may live together with him.

11 ¶ Therefore encourage one another and build each other

GOD Will Recreate the Heavens and The earth!

When JESUS bodily left the earth to sit at the right hand of GOD THE FATHER in Heaven, angels appeared and told the disciples that JESUS would return in exactly the same way that HE left. Lets look at how HE left the Earth and how HE will return. We are reading from the book of Acts in chapter one. JESUS here speaking after GOD raised HIM bodily from the dead (the resurrection) . . .

4 On one occasion, while HE was eating with them, he gave them this command: "Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift MY FATHER promised, which you have heard me speak about.

5 For John baptised with water, but in a few days you will be baptised with the HOLY SPIRIT."

6 ¶ So when they met together, they asked him, "LORD, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?"

7 HE said to them: "It is not for you to know the times or dates the FATHER has set by His own authority.

8 But you will receive power when the HOLY SPIRIT comes on you; and you will be MY witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

9 After HE said this, HE was taken up before their very eyes, and a cloud hid HIM from their sight.

10 They were looking intently up into the sky as HE was going, when suddenly two men dressed in white stood beside them.

11 "Men of Galilee," they said, "why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same JESUS, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen HIM go into heaven."

JESUS HIMSELF promised the disciples that HE would return to catch them away from the world. HE revealed this also to Paul, who though not one of the original disciples was taught directly by JESUS later through the HOLY SPIRIT. Paul writes to us in 1 Thessalonians 5..

13 ¶ Brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant about those who fall asleep or to grieve like the rest of men, who have no hope.

justifying the means'. As Hitler's evolutionary approach to Jews, and contemporary abortion scream at us; and the evolution inspired slaughter of Australian Tasmanian aborigines, warns us across the centuries with their deathly silence.

You don't have to fix something if it is not broken

Under the form of reasoning that the VOA (above) reports, paradoxically Creationism should never have been replaced by mere evolution.

For historically known Creationsim has never been proven wrong, while Evolution has never been proven right—but worse, contrary to what the VOA article asserts, evolution has been widely shown to have no acceptable evidence, many deep scientific problems, and has even been shown up for important falsities.

Hence even the theories of evolution themselves are ever evolving - and even contradict each other.

Evolution, by evolutionists' own reasoning, should not then be accepted as replacing deeply historic Creationism— which (by the evolutionists' reasoning given above) should first have been properly and scientifically disproved before Evolution was ever publically adopted or taught in schools.

Evolution in this context, may be seen as an arrogant unprovable assertion made by an ignorant human race against their all wise Creator.

The truth is that there are no little green men, invisible or otherwise, living at the bottom of your garden!

Evolutionary Adaptations?

For evolution of any kind to ever have been able to work, (1) there would have been a need for a mechanism that would have enabled environmental, and other pressures, to cause a permanent physical change in an animal or organism— at a genetic level. All evolutionary theories known to this writer sidestep this core issue, by claiming, that mysteriously the elements for change were already present in the organism - but just needed enhancement by natural selection or other pressures.

Then (2) there would have needed to be a way for that organism to change its own sperm or eggs DNA as well in order to pass that permanent change on to its off spring.

Long range experiments with fruit fly and other creatures, have shown that so-called Random Changes (or mutations) don't make anything useful.

So, (3) there would also have been a need for the change mechanism to be able to effectively “work out” what changes or new features were needed to make the species more successful.

Such large scale mechanisms do not exist in living creatures any where in the whole natural world.

This is an incontrovertible fact.

What we do see in nature is that each species has a built in diversity of qualities which normally enable its over all population to cope with different changing environmental pressures.

For example possums (furry creatures that live mostly in trees) living in New Zealand have thicker hair when living in the countries South Island than the possums of the same species living in the North Island. The South Island is generally cooler than the North Island.

Possums from both areas can produce offspring that have either thin or thick hair. Possums with thicker hair survive and or breed better in the cooler South Island, and over time the breeding stock there will have more thick haired possums in it.

Possums in the South Island are not evolving into thicker hairier creatures. All that’s happening is that the genes already put at the Beginning into the possum population that promote thicker hair are proving more useful in the colder climate.

As has been shown time and time again with other creatures, take those possums to a much hotter location where thick hair causes death or other problems, and if you have not breed out the short haired genes from the population, you’ll find that only the possums with shorter hair will survive, or prosper better, to breed, and you will over time have a lot more short haired possums running around again.

ALL the research done to date—all over the world, has shown that really nothing is being evolved, nothing new is being naturally added to nature. No useful new features are being naturally added to any creature.

Why? because the very word creature means ‘created one’. Each his offence), much more profusely did GOD’s grace and the free gift that comes through the undeserved favour of the one MAN JESUS CHRIST abound and overflow to and for the benefit of many.

16 Nor is the free gift at all to be compared to the effect of that one man’s sin. For the sentence following the trespass of one man brought condemnation, whereas the free gift following many transgressions brings justification (an act of righteousness).

17 For if because of one man’s trespass (lapse, offence) death reigned through that one, much more surely will those who receive GOD’s overflowing grace (unmerited favour) and the free gift of righteousness putting them into right standing with HIMSELF reign as kings in life through the one MAN JESUS CHRIST (THE MESSIAH, THE ANOINTED ONE).

18 Well then, as one man’s trespass one man’s false step and falling away led to condemnation for all men, so one MAN’S act of righteousness leads to acquittal and right standing with GOD and life for all men.

19 For just as by one man’s disobedience (failing to hear, heedlessness, and carelessness) the many were constituted sinners, so by one MAN’S obedience the many will be constituted righteous (made acceptable to GOD, brought into right standing with HIM).

20 But then Law came in, only to expand and increase the trespass making it more apparent and exciting opposition. But where sin increased and abounded, grace (GOD’S unmerited favour) has surpassed it and increased the more and superabounded, 21 So that, just as sin has reigned in death, so grace (HIS unearned and undeserved fervour) might reign also through righteousness (right standing with God) which issues in eternal life through Jesus Christ (the MESSIAH, THE ANOINTED ONE) our LORD.

weakness powerless to help ourselves, at the fitting time CHRIST died for (in behalf of) the ungodly.

7 Now it is an extraordinary thing for one to give his life even for an upright man, though perhaps for a noble and loveable and generous benefactor someone might even dare to die.

8 But GOD shows and clearly proves HIS own love for us by the fact that while we were still sinners, CHRIST (THE MESSIAH, THE ANOINTED ONE) died for us.

9 Therefore, since we are now justified (acquitted, made righteous, and brought into right relationship with GOD) by CHRIST'S blood, how much more certain is it that we shall be saved by Him from the indignation and wrath of GOD.

10 For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to GOD through the death of HIS SON, it is much more certain, now that we are reconciled, that we shall be saved (daily delivered from sin's dominion) through His resurrection life.

11 Not only so, but we also rejoice and exultingly glory in GOD in HIS love and perfection through our Lord JESUS CHRIST, through WHOM we have now received and enjoy our reconciliation.

12 Therefore, as sin came into the world through one man, and death as the result of sin, so death spread to all men, no one being able to stop it or to escape its power because all men sinned.

13 To be sure sin was in the world before ever the Law was given, but sin is not charged to men's account where there is no law to transgress.

14 Yet death held sway from Adam to Moses the Lawgiver, even over those who did not themselves transgress a positive command as Adam did. Adam was a type (prefigure) of the ONE WHO was to come in reverse, the former destructive, the Latter saving.

15 But GOD'S free gift is not at all to be compared to the trespass His grace is out of all proportion to the fall of man. For if many died through one man's falling away (his lapse, species was made and designed to carry on reproducing in exactly the same way as it was first created.

The idea put around is that we are to believe that one day the mechanism for change into new species, and new things to evolve like eyes and ears and so on, will be found.

But why, in a scientific sense should any one be expected to believe that when there has been absolutely no evidence for it since the idea was first invented, for well over one hundred years now!

☒ (1) Why scientifically believe in something that still does not exist, even after 100 years?

☒ (2) Is that scientifically reasonable or academically acceptable?

☒ (3) Is it socially responsible for scientists to make such important things sound like known facts, when they are not?

It needs to be stated again, that there is no way to show how or why scientifically wished for genetic mutations could have or would have ever taken place and been passed on.

Working with this idea is like trying to run a train, where there are no railway lines for it to go on.

Your neighbour might say that there are little green men at the bottom of his garden. He hasn't seen or discovered them, but says,

"They are there—because the grass is green—can't you see it!"

What would you think of that?

For evolutionists for over a hundred years to continue on leading the public to think that everything is solved or about to be solved, when they will not ever be able to fix this, is unbelievable.

Bogus Bone Ideas

When bones are found in the ground, what is made of them starts immediately in the imagination of the person who finds them. Often the researcher makes a claim that their 'find' confirms that man is descended from an ape like creature because that is what he 'hopes' to find when he is digging in the field. Later the finder goes back on their original claims, but the public and school children are not told about that, and all are left to believe in the original allegation, that we are descended from apelike creatures.

One of the bogus ancestors that we supposedly share with other primates was nick named Lucy (or some bones were). Lucy and situations like her was/is a key to evolutionary ideas of how humans are supposed to have come on the scene.

Writes Brad Harrub, (Ph.D.) and Bert Thompson, (Ph.D) in 'The Truth About Lucy'

You might be asking yourself why this charade has been allowed to go on for so long. The answer. woven around power, fame, and money. can be found in Johanson's own words.

"There is no such thing as a total lack of bias. I have it; everybody has it. The fossil hunter in the field has it.. In everybody who is looking for hominids there is a strong urge to learn more about where the human line started. If you are working back at around three million, as I was, that is very seductive, because you begin to get an idea that that is where Homo did start. You begin straining your eyes to find Homo traits in fossils of that age..Logical, maybe, but also biased. I was trying to jam evidence of dates into a pattern that would support conclusions about fossils which, on closer inspection, the fossils themselves would not sustain."

(Johanson and Edey, 1981, pp. 257,258,emp.added).

He went on to admit:

“.It is hard for me now to admit how tangled in that thicket I was. But the insidious thing about bias is that it does make one deaf to the cries of other evidence.”

(p. 277). In the March 1996 issue of National Geographic,

Dr. Johanson himself admitted:

“Lucy has recently been dethroned. (189[3]:117). His fifteen minutes of fame had ended.”

As Lee Berger declared:

“One might say we are kicking Lucy out of the family tree.” (as quoted in Shreeve, 1996).

Isn't it ironic how often that [evolutionary] family tree gets pruned and trimmed?

The implications of this are enormous. And many well known episodes of the supposed discovery of an assumed human ancestor animals like 'Lucy', have later been backtracked on by their 'discoverers'. It's been going on unchecked and unchallenged for decades. Duane T Gish writes in 'Evolution the Challenge of the Fossil Record',

“First, almost all investigators have changed their minds at one time or another, and yet no consensus is in sight. Richard Leakey has been most candid in this respect. In an article published in March Of 1982 in New Scientist he is reported to have said that ‘I am staggered to believe that as little as a year ago I made the statements that I made’

Although there is little doubt that helping people or being 'nice' can cleanse away sins. Later GOD was even to give people the opening to earn the merit needed for Eternal life by following the decrees of the Law He gave through Moses—recorded later in the Old Testament). In Moses Law GOD gave instructions for the offering of sacrifices and offerings.

However no person on earth ever lived the life required to earn the Salvation of GOD. So GOD had it recorded,

“HE saw that there was no-one, HE was appalled that there was no-one to intervene; so HIS own arm worked salvation for HIM, and HIS own righteousness sustained HIM.”

Isaiah 59:16

GOD sent HIS SON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, into the world, to earn Salvation on our behalf, to give us the free gift of Eternal Life!

This is the good news of what GOD has done for us if we believe, again reading from the Amplified version of the Bible.

1 THEREFORE, SINCE we are justified (acquitted, declared righteous, and given a right standing with GOD) through faith, let us grasp the fact that we have the peace of reconciliation to hold and to enjoy peace with GOD through our LORD JESUS CHRIST (THE MESSIAH, THE ANOINTED ONE).

2 Through HIM also we have our access (entrance, introduction) by faith into this grace (state of GOD's favour) in which we firmly and safely stand. And let us rejoice and exult in our hope of experiencing and enjoying the glory of GOD.

3 Moreover let us also be full of joy now! let us exult and triumph in our troubles and rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that pressure and affliction and hardship produce patient and unswerving endurance.

4 And endurance (fortitude) develops maturity of character (approved faith and tried integrity). And character of this sort produces the habit of joyful and confident hope of eternal salvation.

5 Such hope never disappoints or deludes or shames us, for GOD's love has been poured out in our hearts through the HOLY SPIRIT Who has been given to us.

6 While we were yet in the days of your life.

18 Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth for you, and you shall eat the plants of the field.

19 In the sweat of your face shall you eat bread until you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken; for dust you are and to dust you shall return.

20 The man called his wife's name Eve [life spring], because she was the mother of all the living.

21 For Adam also and for his wife the LORD GOD made long coats (tunics) of skins and clothed them.

22 And the LORD GOD said, Behold, the man has become like one of Us [THE FATHER, SON, AND HOLY SPIRIT], to know [how to distinguish between] good and evil {and} blessing and calamity; and now, lest he put forth his hand and take also from the tree of life and eat, and live forever--

23 Therefore the LORD GOD sent him forth from the Garden of Eden to till the ground from which he was taken.

24 So [GOD] drove out the man; and He placed at the east of the Garden of Eden the cherubim and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep {and} guard the way to the tree of life.

Man disobeyed GOD, listening instead to his wife who had been deceived by Satan. GOD curses His wonderful Creation against the day HE would restore it, after He works through the full consequences of man's rebellion and sin.

For us it meant that instead of living for ever naturally through the tree of life, we were to inherit sin and death from our physical ancestors Adam and Eve. We were excluded from the good life of Paradise and ...

Worse we were cut off from the fellowship and closeness that mankind was given at the beginning with GOD.

GOD's timeless decree has always been that the entity that sins will die, and Satan had tricked mankind to fall into the same judgement that he himself is under.

For full freedom from the Last Judgement to happen, we need the price of our judgement paid.

And there is nothing that we can make up ourselves to earn that merit and be cleansed of our own sins. Not even being religiously devout, saving whales, doing good deeds or

Leakey believes that the australopithecines walked erect, he is quoted in this same article as saying that

'paleontologists do not know whether Australopithecus walked upright. — nobody has yet found an associated skeleton with skull'

We should be reminded that this statement was made after all recent major discoveries had been reported, including those of the teams headed by Johanson, by Mary Leakey, and by Richard Leakey. In his book, The Making of Mankind, published in 1981, Leakey had stated (p. 71) that 'we can now say that the australopithecines definitely walked upright.'

For which it proved to be there was no evidence even, in the fossil bones themselves.

If you took a representative for each level of supposed human evolution, the actual bones that have been dug up would not even fill a human coffin!

There is a very good reason why scientists can not agree on the family tree of human evolution. Humans do not have a family tree of human evolution — and there are no ancestor animal bones to be found or dug up.

For the involved scientists it's all wonderfully financially lucrative, and for the rest of us a dangerous, pseudo-scientific urban myth.

Star Dust

There are scientists who would like you to believe that your body is made up of star dust from stars that exploded even billions of years ago. Believe, because you can never know it was true. Such scientists want you to trust that they are right in the faith that they have in what they believe happened.

Believe, because they are only making their best guess at it.

Faith, belief, trust — are these words to do with science?

Yes because when you try to look at the beginning of all things, scientists can not talk objectively about it, because they were not around to see it, and do not allow themselves to use the only accurate record of it that does exist. So handicapping themselves, such impoverished science can only put forward guesses and theories. And some of the work scientists have done is truly amazing.

But a lot of it, especially concerning far off events, and the tiniest particles of matter and their behaviour, moves into the realm of what the individual scientist believes is happening. Kenneth Clark in his BBC T.V. series "Civilization" was really very on the button, when talking historically about the rise of western science, he called it the “new religion”.

Modern science is a vast and wide pursuit now encompassing numerous ‘disciplines’, fields of endeavour, and areas of discovery. But not all of the ‘sciences’ that have come on the scene in the last 150 years or so, share the same requirement for confirmable fact as some of the more classic sciences still hold to. And a lot of people do not know that.

Bill Phillips the Editor of the Williams Lake Tribune, who doesn’t support a Creator GOD - writing in the Quesnal - Cariboo Observer, Canada, April 23rd, 2006, says,

“. . . One of the problems with the creationism / evolution debate is that no one was around when it all happened so no one really knows for sure.

Scientists base their theories on research and whatever facts they can garner about the origins of earth.

Still, their conclusions involve a leap of faith”

Http://www.quesnelobserver.com/portals-code/list.cgi?paper=27&cat=48&id=633624&more=

And as accurate a picture as that may be of the state of affairs, it is not the understanding that ‘science’ gives the public about what it is doing in these matters.

The universe is there and what measurements we can take of it are often real enough, but it always will come back to what we choose to make of it. For without understanding the original reasoning behind the creation of the universe, we can never ultimately understand how it has been put together, what it is all about, or where it is all headed.

The symmetry and order of it all caused Galileo reportedly to exclaim, “GOD wrote the universe in the language of mathematics. ”

But science itself can not find the reason behind it all, as all top science ignores the spiritual foundation and building blocks that stand behind, what they can measure and observe.

Yet there is much that science already relies upon, especially in metaphysics, and evolution that can not itself be observed or directly measured, or ever be measured at all.

Even at the most fundamental level man's science can not explain why the stronger repulsive forces of the atom do not destroy it, as the attractive forces are weaker, and there is no real demonstratable reason for it to hold together.

When Kenneth Clark (quoted earlier) first described the rise of western science as ‘the new religion’, he touched upon something that has now deepened even more.

were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves apronlike girdles.

8 And they heard the sound of the LORD GOD walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD GOD among the trees of the garden.

9 But the LORD GOD called to Adam and said to him, Where are you?

10 He said, I heard the sound of YOU [walking] in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; and I hid myself.

11 And HE said, Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten of the tree of which I commanded you that you should not eat?

12 And the man said, The woman whom YOU gave to be with me--she gave me [fruit] from the tree, and I ate.

13 And the LORD GOD said to the woman, What is this you have done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled (cheated, outwitted, and deceived) me, and I ate.

14 And the LORD GOD said to the serpent, Because you have done this, you are cursed above all [domestic] animals and above every [wild] living thing of the field; upon your belly you shall go, and you shall eat dust [and what it contains] all the days of your life.

15 And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her Offspring; He will bruise {and} tread your head underfoot, and you will lie in wait {and} bruise His heel.

16 To the woman HE said, I will greatly multiply your grief {and} your suffering in pregnancy {and} the pangs of childbearing; with spasms of distress you will bring forth children. Yet your desire {and} craving will be for your husband, and he will rule over you.

17 And to Adam HE said, Because you have listened {and} given heed to the voice of your wife and have eaten of the tree of which I commanded you, saying, You shall not eat of it, the ground is under a curse because of you; in sorrow {and} toil shall you eat [of the fruits] of it all because she was taken out of a man. Therefore a man shall leave his father and his mother and shall become united and cleave to his wife, and they shall become one flesh. And the man and his wife were both naked and were not embarrassed or ashamed in each other's presence.

The very next things that happen, explain to us why we need JESUS to come and save us from our sins and the Judgement of GOD coming upon us for our sins.

Originally the human race was created innocent and without sin, verse 25 above emphasizes this. We had no knowledge of Good and evil, and were not accountable for anything but believing and trusting in GOD.

GOD made the whole set up to work on love. He had made us and loves us, and all HE wanted Adam and eve to choose to do was love HIM back. If they had done so they would have been safe just through loving trusting and obeying GOD. No harm could have come to them.

Hear what the Amplified bible records of what happened next, starting in chapter three of Genesis

1 NOW THE serpent was more subtle {and} crafty than any living creature of the field which the LORD GOD had made. And he [Satan] said to the woman, Can it really be that GOD has said, You shall not eat from every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said to the serpent, We may eat the fruit from the trees of the garden,

3 Except the fruit from the tree which is in the middle of the garden. GOD has said, You shall not eat of it, neither shall you touch it, lest you die.

4 But the serpent said to the woman, You shall not surely die,

5 For GOD knows that in the day you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like GOD, knowing the difference between good and evil {and} blessing and calamity.

6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good (suitable, pleasant) for food and that it was delightful to look at, and a tree to be desired in order to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate; and she gave some also to her husband, and he ate.

7 Then the eyes of them both

Now science provides the basis for mankind's morality, defines his past, sets the agenda for his present, and even determines the future. The 'priests' of science set the agenda for the new PC morality.

Many areas of so-called science have stood in the reflected glory of the classical and practical sciences that have provided benefit to mankind, earning themselves a standing that they do not deserve. A psychiatric report can now be admitted as evidence in the courts of many lands of the world, and can see someone convicted of something that they did not do, or someone let off a crime they did do, as if the opinion of the report writer were an eye witness account of an event. That is giving scientific credibility to things that do not deserve it.

The writer was astounded to hear on Deutsche Welle TV recently an interview where a professor said that using such kinds of science on some bones of Neanderthals, could eventually even tell us what those humans were even thinking!— Such claims are entirely unwarranted.

False Sciences Evolve an Unholy Alliance

Principles of evolutionary philosophy are applied daily all over the world by Government politicians in determining policies, and by Government workers in day to day spending decisions, in determining who gets medical treatment, the murder of babies in the name of evolving woman's rights, secret hospital euthanasia (for budgetary reasons), and even in considering clinical processes for genetic and other medical procedures.

Some human genetic material is declared evolutionary obsolete/redundant. What sort of babies result from those fertility treatments?

The same has happened before. The human appendix was sometimes unnecessarily removed from people because it was considered an evolutionary biological relic, but now it is known to perform important bodily functions.

Because of evolutionary principles, ethnic groups have nearly been wiped out. Australian aborigines in Tasmania went that way, and Hitler wrongly attacked the Jews partly on those grounds. Even the German generals of the First World War (before Hitler), were driven by evolutionary thinking and the evolutionary 'supremacy' of the Arian race.

You may see that what people believe about GOD and evolution is extremely important in every way in both the spiritual and physical realities of life.

It is really no surprise that the politics of modern thinking, education, and public decision making are so closely linked to evolution . . .

“Engels, Marx’s disciple, was the first to discover Darwin’s book.

“Friedrich Engels, one of the founders of Communism, wrote to Karl Marx, December 12, 1859,

“Darwin, whom I am just now reading, is splendid.”—

C Zirkle, Evolution, Marxian Biology, and the Social Scene (1959), p. 85.

Marx then read it and wrote back:

“Karl Marx wrote to Friedrich Engels, December 19, 1860, ‘Although it is developed in the crude English style, this is the book which contains the basis in natural history for our views.’”

—C. Zirkle, Evolution, Marxian Biology, and the Social Scene (1959), p.88.

Within a month, Marx knew he had found what he was searching for: a “scientific” basis for his theory of “social progress.”

“Again, Marx wrote to Engels, January 16, 1861,

‘Darwin’s book is very important and serves me as a basis in natural selection for the class struggle in history. . not only is a death blow dealt here for the first time to “teleology” in the natural sciences but their rational meaning is emphatically explained.’”

—*C. Zirkle, Evolution, Marxian Biology, and the Social Scene (1959), p. 88.

In fact Karl Marx wanted to dedicate the second edition of his book ‘Das Kapital’ to Darwin. Darwin turned him down.

In the modern absence of a true knowledge, faith and love mixed with fear of GOD THE CREATOR, such pseudo-sciences have now reshaped much of the Western and Eastern world.

Evolution at Work

Given what we know now about both evolution and Marxism, the consequences are frightening. No wonder they have, and are continuing to Godlessly work together now in so-called social and political sciences, and public administration. Mixed with situational ethics, this has all evolved to be called (P.C.) Political Correctness, a new Devil inspired “anti-morality”.

At the very beginning

Looking at readings from satellites, and by applying their current theories, some scientists believe that they can establish what happened at the very beginning of time.

food; the tree of life also in the centre of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of the difference between good and evil and blessing and calamity.

10 Now a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from there it divided and became four river heads. The first is named Pishon; it is the one flowing around the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold. The gold of that land is of high quality; bdellium (pearl?) and onyx stone are there. The second river is named Gihon; it is the one flowing around the whole land of Cush. The third river is named Hiddekel the Tigris; it is the one flowing east of Assyria. And the fourth river is the Euphrates.

15 And the LORD GOD took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to tend and guard and keep it. And the LORD GOD commanded the man, saying, You may freely eat of every tree of the garden; But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil and blessing and calamity you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die.

18 Now the LORD GOD said, It is not good (sufficient, satisfactory) that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper meet (suitable, adapted, complementary) for him. And out of the ground the LORD GOD formed every wild beast and living creature of the field and every bird of the air and brought them to Adam to see what he would call them; and whatever Adam called every living creature, that was its name. And Adam gave names to all the livestock and to the birds of the air and to every wild beast of the field; but for Adam there was not found a helper meet (suitable, adapted, complementary) for him.

21 And the LORD GOD caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam; and while he slept, He took one of his ribs or a part of his side and closed up the place with flesh. And the rib or part of his side which the LORD GOD had taken from the man He built up and made into a woman, and He brought her to the man.

23 Then Adam said, This creature is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called Woman,

GOD and man; and have dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, and over every living creature that moves upon the earth. And GOD said, See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is on the face of all the land and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. And to all the animals on the earth and to every bird of the air and to everything that creeps on the ground--to everything in which there is the breath of life--I have given every green plant for food. And it was so.

31 And GOD saw everything that He had made, and behold, it was very good (suitable, pleasant) and HE approved it completely. And there was evening and there was morning, a sixth day.

Gen 2:1 THUS THE heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them.

2 And on the seventh day GOD ended HIS work which He had done; and HE rested on the seventh day from all HIS work which HE had done And GOD blessed (spoke good of) the seventh day, set it apart as HIS own, and hallowed it, because on it GOD rested from all HIS work which HE had created and done.

4 This is the history of the heavens and of the earth when they were created. In the day that the LORD GOD made the earth and the heavens--

5 When no plant of the field was yet in the earth and no herb of the field had yet sprung up, for the LORD GOD had not yet caused it to rain upon the earth and there was no man to till the ground, But there went up a mist (fog, vapour) from the land and watered the whole surface of the ground--

7 Then the LORD GOD formed man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath or spirit of life, and man became a living being. And the LORD GOD planted a garden toward the east, in Eden delight; and there He put the man whom He had formed (framed, constituted).

9 And out of the ground the LORD GOD made to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight or to be desired--good (suitable, pleasant) for

When you hear them speak or read what they have to say, you would think that they were actually taking definite photos of what happened.

But amazingly all of the conclusions that they draw for us today would be set aside in a moment, should someone else come up with a theory that sounded better. Then the very same readings from the same satellites will be pumped into the new theory and the scientists would give us a different scenario of what they believe happened.

The way that scientists use satellites is not the same as television satellites that send news and sports stories, phone calls, internet and entertainment all around the world. No, the scientists' satellites measure things like tiny temperature changes, microwave activity, and other very subtle matters.

These scientists are not actually taking photos of the very beginning of the universe with really advanced telescopes, no they are not doing that at all. In fact it can not be done.

What is surprising some, is that the more the scientists try to read their information, and the more they try to refine their theories, the closer their picture of what they think happened at the very beginning of the universe is matching what is recorded in the only authoritative ancient account that we have.

This is baffling some scientists because it is only with highly advanced technology and very expensive equipment that they have even started being able to get near the realization of what happened at the beginning of the Universe. Yet the ancient written account is daily proving to be more up-to-date than last years and this years science!

Here we have excerpts form two recent articles in 2006. Previously scientists were saying that research and theories were showing that the universe has been constantly expanding over time. That it took thousands of millions of years for the universe to be where it is today. Now suddenly things have moved in scientific circles.

Universe expanded instantly after Big Bang: astronomers

Last Updated Thu, 16 Mar 2006 19:44:07 EST

The universe expanded rapidly an instant after the Big Bang, physicists studying data from a NASA space probe say.

NASA's Wilkinson Microwave Anisotropy Probe or WMAP spacecraft is looking at the afterglow of energy from the Big Bang, believed to have occurred about 13.7 billion years ago, to help researchers understand how the universe formed.

"We report today the most precise measurements of our infant universe, said Charles Bennett, principal investigator for the NASA mission.

We have new evidence that the universe suddenly grew from sub-microscopic to astronomical size in less than the blink of an eye, Bennett told a telephone news conference.

“The new data also inform scientists that only four-percent of the universe is ordinary matter that we can see. Twenty-two percent is unidentified dark matter, and 74 percent is a mysterious dark energy. This is a force scientists believe counters the gravitational pull of matter and is causing another rapid expansion of the universe, although not nearly as forceful as the first one.

The observations are spectacular and the conclusions are stunning, he said.

Columbia University cosmology theorist Peter Greene, who was not part of the WMAP research team.

“Our species is one that seeks its origin, and the deepest of all questions of origin is, how did the universe begin? WMAP has certainly not answered this question, but WMAP’s data is taking us one giant step closer to the answer by giving us a precise quantitative look at what happened literally at time zero itself”, he said.

From the Dust

Most scientists believe that after the 'big bang' there was basically a lot of what they call interstellar dust.

And that these particles of dust began to be attracted by gravitational forces towards each other. (Scientists do not know what gravity actually is or where it came from.)

Then for some reason, supposedly some of the dust grouped up faster than other bits, and attracted more and more material and basically all of this eventually got so dense in places that it formed stars, suns like ours.

In the process of dust attraction and collisions, planets and moons are supposed to have been formed.

There are major problems for scientists with these sorts of theoretical “models”. For example such models can not adequately explain how the ice planets (Neptune and Uranus) in the outer solar system formed.

What is believed by many scientists, is that over the billions of years that they guess the universe has existed, some stars have blown up and the material has formed new stars and planets like our own. Such scientists guess that ours is a young sun and that you and I are made from such star dust, from old blown up stars.

in the expanse of the heavens to give light upon the earth, To rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And GOD saw that it was good (fitting, pleasant) and HE approved it. And there was evening and there was morning, a fourth day.

20 And GOD said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly and swarm with living creatures, and let birds fly over the earth in the open expanse of the heavens.

21 GOD created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, which the waters brought forth abundantly, according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind. And GOD saw that it was good (suitable, admirable) and HE approved it.

22 And GOD blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let the fowl multiply in the earth.

23 And there was evening and there was morning, a fifth day.

24 And GOD said, Let the earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinds: livestock, creeping things, and wild beasts of the earth according to their kinds. And it was so.

25 And GOD made the wild beasts of the earth according to their kinds, and domestic animals according to their kinds, and everything that creeps upon the earth according to its kind. And GOD saw that it was good (fitting, pleasant) and HE approved it.

26 God said, LET US [FATHER, SON, AND HOLY SPIRIT] make mankind in OUR image, after OUR LIKENESS, and let them have complete authority over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, the tame beasts, and over all of the earth, and over everything that creeps upon the earth.

27 So GOD created man in His own image, in the image and likeness of GOD HE created him; male and female HE created them.

28 And GOD blessed them and said to them, Be fruitful, multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it using all its vast resources in the service of the expanse. And it was so.

8 And GOD called the firmament Heavens. And there was evening and there was morning, a second day.

9 And GOD said, Let the waters under the heavens be collected into one place of standing, and let the dry land appear. And it was so.

10 GOD called the dry land Earth, and the accumulated waters HE called Seas. And GOD saw that this was good (fitting, admirable) and HE approved it.

11 And GOD said, Let the earth put forth tender vegetation: plants yielding seed and fruit trees yielding fruit whose seed is in itself, each according to its kind, upon the earth. And it was so.

12 The earth brought forth vegetation: plants yielding seed according to their own kinds and trees bearing fruit in which was their seed, each according to its kind. And GOD saw that it was good (suitable, admirable) and HE approved it.

13 And there was evening and there was morning, a third day.

14 And GOD said, Let there be lights in the expanse of the heavens to separate the day from the night, and let them be signs and tokens of G O D ' s provident care, and to mark seasons, days, and years, And let them be lights in the expanse of the sky to give light upon the earth. And it was so.

16 And GOD made the two great lights--the greater light (the sun) to rule the day and the lesser light (the moon) to rule the night. He also made the stars. And GOD set them

The Bible (from a Greek word meaning library) is made up of the New and Old Testament books and people often just loosely call it, 'the Word' or 'Word of God', but more correctly, it calls itself 'the Scripture(s)'.

GOD inspired the recording of everything written in the Bible and it even records direct words from GOD HIMSELF. The phrase 'the WORD OF GOD' is often more accurately a title of THE LORD JESUS, than the book's name

Surprisingly the data from the satellites (WMAP) discussed earlier is showing accurately that the stars were not created straight away.

Even this process of star formation is not clear to the scientists. Presently they are looking at the presence of "dark matter" as being involved. And it is not clear to them what it is that they are looking for. They think that Dark matter does not give off light, but has gravitational qualities.

Although the whole thing is theoretical, they make statements like this:

Galaxies are Born Inside Dark Matter Clumps, Cornell Study of Nasa Spitzer Space Telescope Data Shows

PRESS RELEASE
April 20, 2006
Cornell University

By Alex Kwan

Try mixing caramel into vanilla ice cream -- you will always end up with globs and swirls of caramel. Scientists are finding that galaxies may distribute themselves in similar ways throughout the universe and in places where there is lots of so-called dark matter.

A computer simulation of the distribution of "dark" matter at an early point in the history of the universe. The observations by Cornell's Duncan Farrah and colleagues provide solid evidence that galaxies in the distant past trace this matter distribution very well and that these galaxies will eventually reside in extremely rich clusters of galaxies at the current epoch. Farrah believes his study also provides valuable insights into understanding how dark matter helped mould the evolution of the universe.

Peter Greene quoted above asked this question:

"Our species is one that seeks its origin, and the deepest of all questions of origin is, how did the universe begin?.."

And again from above, David McAlary

"The new data also inform scientists that only four-percent of the universe is ordinary matter that we can see. Twenty-two percent is unidentified dark matter, and 74 percent is a mysterious dark energy."

How do these two statements relate? Is there a clear answer that will never be changed on us? There is. Awesomely the answers have been written for thousands of years, available in nearly every bookshop and library in the western world, in the most printed book ever produced.

The Bible.

GOD Separated the Light from the Darkness

Let us hear more from the ancient writings—from the only authoritative account of what happened at the very beginning of all things. This quote is from the Hebrew (Jewish) and Christian Scriptures' opening page.

The Carpenter of Nazareth

Bill Phillips quoted earlier said,

“no one was around when it all happened so no one really knows for sure.”

What if this was not true?

Quoting Bill Phillips again,

“Scientists base their theories on research and whatever facts they can garner about the origins of earth. Still, their conclusions involve a leap of faith.”

Given then that we will have to use faith, let's look into the most reliable path for that faith to go in.

So far we have looked at the origins of all things and the origins specifically of ourselves and other

1 ¶ In the beginning GOD created the heavens and the earth.

2 Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the SPIRIT OF GOD was hovering over the waters.

3 ¶ And GOD said, "Let there be light," and there was light.

4 GOD saw that the light was good, and HE separated the light from the darkness.

life forms on earth, all from the confusing and constantly shifting perspective of man's stumblings and fumbings to discover and understand for himself.

It's as if human science in this realm is like members of a broken family trying to piece together a family history from shards, ashes, and moth-eaten pieces of photographs, unaware that a pristine family photograph album, with full history and genealogy actually already exists.

— There was some ONE around when it all happened, and HE has the most reliable testimony and evidence of all. Who was around at the beginning to be able to tell us about the creation of all things like this?

1 ¶ After JESUS said this, he looked towards heaven and prayed:

" . . . And now, FATHER,

16 For it was in HIM that all things were created, in heaven and on earth, things seen and things unseen, whether thrones, dominions, rulers, or authorities; all things were created and exist through HIM by His service, intervention and in and for HIM. And HE HIMSELF existed before all things, and in HIM all things consist (cohere, are held together).

18 HE also is the Head of His body, the church; seeing HE is THE BEGINNING, THE FIRSTBORN from among the dead, so that HE alone in everything and in every respect might occupy the chief place stand first and be pre-eminent.

19 For it has pleased the FATHER that all the divine fullness (the sum total of the divine perfection, powers, and attributes) should dwell in HIM permanently.”

Col 1: 14- 19 Amplified Bible

When JESUS walked on Earth, HE quoted from and gave utter credibility to the accounts recorded in the Old Testament.

So let us hear what the Old Testament has recorded in it about GOD's works in creating all things. These quotes are again from the Amplified Bible.

1 IN THE beginning GOD (prepared, formed, fashioned, and) created the heavens and the earth.

2 The earth was without form and an empty waste, and darkness was upon the face of the very great deep. THE SPIRIT OF GOD was moving (hovering, brooding) over the face of the waters.

3 And GOD said, Let there be light; and there was light.

4 And GOD saw that the light was good (suitable, pleasant) and HE approved it; and GOD separated the light from the darkness. And GOD called the light Day, and the darkness He called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, one day.

6 And GOD said, Let there be a firmament the expanse of the sky in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters below from the waters above. And GOD made the firmament the expanse and separated the waters which were under the expanse from the waters which were above for every thought that you have ever had, for every sinful action you have ever done or helped others do. For every good thing that you never did. And there will be no balancing of some nice things you have done against the sin you have done in GOD's sight.

Your life will be measured against the goodness of JESUS and no one measures up to that standard.

Your only hope is to believe the promise from GOD now while still alive on Earth that if you believe in JESUS CHRIST with all of your heart and what He did in paying for your sins by dying on the cross in Israel just on two thousand years ago, then GOD will accept JESUS' payment for your sins and not hold you accountable for them. That you then must live led by GOD's SPIRIT for the rest of your days for GOD's glory avoiding sin and doing GOD's will.

Your first step in turning away from sin and choosing to believe in GOD and what He says, is to be baptised, and meet with other Christians, and read the Bible to discover what GOD has already said about HIMSELF and how you are to utterly fit into His will for your life.

As you carry on with GOD you will find that HE will also empower you with the power of His HOLY SPIRIT and you will end up with a gift from HIM like speaking in tongues, speaking prophecy, praying successfully for healing, or doing miracles, there is a full list in the New Testament.

Look for people who call themselves Christians and teach these things. Not only is the Bible right about Creation, it also tells us the truth about the current work of the Holy Spirit amongst us!

Creation is a miracle and GOD is still doing miracles today!

If you are coming to Christ or are a person who fell away from believing in Jesus, and polluted your mind and heart with worldly and demonic philosophies of evolution, then read on. For to be saved by THE CREATOR GOD, you must purge yourself of any traces of evolutionary thinking!

The Creation of All Things

There is more in the New Testament in the Bible that can tell us about JESUS the SON OF GOD and His work in creation. Speaking of JESUS..

14 In WHOM we have our redemption through His blood, which means the forgiveness of our sins. Now HE is the exact likeness of the unseen GOD the visible representation of the invisible; HE is the FIRSTBORN of all creation.

glorify ME in your presence with the glory I had with YOU before the world began.

John 17:1a,5

Now we have moved dramatically from what man tries to work out, to what GOD has chosen to reveal. To do that we will look at a lot of Scripture.

We are confronted with the PERSON WHO actually created it all.

JESUS declares that he was with His FATHER IN HEAVEN before the world began.

This is a monumental statement.

Just WHO is JESUS then?

1 ¶ In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with GOD, and the Word was GOD.

2 HE was with GOD in the beginning.

3 Through HIM all things were made; without HIM nothing was made that has been made.

4 In HIM was life, and that life was the light of men.

5 ¶ The light shines in the darkness, but the darkness has not understood it.

John 1

And this most ordinary and yet utterly extraordinary PERSON walked the earth just under 2,000 years ago.

GOD had chosen to reveal Himself directly to the human race for an amazing purpose. A purpose set in motion before the foundation of the Earth was even laid.

JESUS came as the ultimate revelation of GOD to the human race. To die suffering, enabling even our sins to be forgiven.

And to prove it all, GOD THE FATHER raised JESUS from the dead!

And when HE comes to this planet even the creation itself recognises WHO HE is.

22 ¶ One day JESUS said to His disciples, "Let's go over to the other side of the lake." So they got into a boat and set out. As they sailed, HE fell asleep. A squall came down on the lake, so that the boat was being swamped, and they were in great danger.

24 The disciples went and woke HIM, saying, "MASTER, MASTER, we're going to drown!" HE got up and rebuked the wind and the raging waters; the storm subsided, and all was calm. "Where is your faith?" HE asked His disciples. In fear and amazement they asked one another, "WHO is this? HE commands even the winds and the water, and they obey HIM." Luke 8:22-25

"And GOD still does miracles through the disciples of JESUS today, confirming WHO JESUS is, and the reality and truth of what the Scriptures say."

JESUS was born in the small town called Bethlehem, just outside of Jerusalem. It was the home town of His mother's ancestor King David, and the Roman Emperor had ordered everyone in his Empire to return to their ancestral home towns for the purposes of a taxation census.

The build up to the birth of JESUS is anything but normal. Mary was promised for marriage (betrothed) to a carpenter called Joseph, also a descendant of Israel's King David.

As was the Godly way of those times, Mary was still a virgin. And an angel (a spiritual being - see below) sent from the LORD GOD spoke to Mary.

26 ¶ In the sixth month, GOD sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a town in Galilee, to a virgin pledged to be married to a man named Joseph, a descendant of David. The virgin's name was Mary.

28 The angel went to her and said, "Greetings, you who are highly favoured! The LORD is with you."

29 Mary was greatly troubled at his words and wondered what kind of greeting this might be. But the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, you have found favour with GOD. You will be with child and give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name JESUS. He will be great and will be called the SON of the MOST HIGH. The LORD GOD will give him the throne of his father David, and HE will reign over the house of Jacob for ever; his kingdom will never end."

34 "How will this be," Mary asked the angel, "since I am a virgin?"

35 The angel answered, "The HOLY SPIRIT will come upon you, and the power of the MOST HIGH will overshadow you. So the HOLY ONE to be born will be called the SON OF GOD. Even Elizabeth your relative is going to have a child in her old age, and she who was said to be barren is words that JESUS has spoken will judge every person that has ever lived. Those who have whole heartedly trusted and believed the LORD JESUS will be given Eternal Life.

While those whose names are not found written in GOD's Book of Life who have held on to their sins and not turned for forgiveness and utterly believed in GOD's SON, will be thrown—in their new imperishable bodies, thrown—into the burning lake of fire for ever and ever—to be tormented with no hope of reprieve for all Eternity. And GOD will not remember them nor look upon them ever.

Where are you going?

3 ¶ First of all, you must understand that in the last days scoffers will come, scoffing and following their own evil desires.

4 They will say, "Where is this 'coming' HE promised? Ever since our fathers died, everything goes on as it has since the beginning of creation." [Uniformitarianism?]

5 But they deliberately forget that long ago by GOD's word the heavens existed and the earth was formed out of water and by water.

6 By these waters also the world of that time was deluged and destroyed.

7 By the same word the present heavens and earth are reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

8 ¶ But do not forget this one thing, dear friends: With the LORD a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day.

9 ¶ The LORD is not slow in keeping his promise, as some understand slowness. HE is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance.

10 But the day of the LORD will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare.

2 Peter 3:9

Where will you spend Eternity?

The issues just put before you are of eternal consequence. On the day you are raised from the dead to face GOD for the sins in your life, there will be no where to run and hide.

You will stand before GOD to answer

43 ¶ "You have heard that it was said, 'Love your neighbour and hate your enemy.' But I tell you: Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, 45 that you may be sons of your Father in heaven. He causes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous. If you love those who love you, what reward will you get? Are not even the tax collectors doing that?

47 And if you greet only your brothers, what are you doing more than others? Do not even pagans do that?

48 Be perfect, therefore, as your HEAVENLY FATHER is perfect.

Followers of JESUS still see and do through HIM, the things that the LORD JESUS first did amongst us all.

The evidences of the miracles, healings, signs and wonders that GOD is still doing today through the Name of JESUS still speak freshly to the human race today.

JESUS says,

" . . Believe the miracles, that you may know and understand that the FATHER is in me, and I in the FATHER."

John 10:38b

". . for the very work that the FATHER has given me to finish, and which I am doing, testifies that the FATHER has sent me.

John 5:36

" I tell you the truth, anyone who has faith in me will do what I have been doing. He will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the FATHER.

John 14:12

JESUS' death and resurrection have destroyed the power of the Devil for those who come through Jesus to GOD in full assurance of faith.

And God still does miracles through the disciples of JESUS today confirming Who JESUS is, and the reality and truth of the Scriptures.

If you choose to turn your mind and heart and believe in JESUS the SON OF GOD, following and holding His words in your heart, then you too will become a child of GOD. Given the chance to persevere to the end and to be adopted at the Return of JESUS in the clouds, and Resurrection of the faithful dead—adopted as a son of GOD, receiving a body that can never get sick or die again.

in her sixth month. For nothing is impossible with GOD."

" I am the LORD's servant," Mary answered. "May it be to me as you have said." Then the angel left her.

Luke 12:26-38

Mary went immediately to see her relative Elizabeth that the angel Gabriel had told her was also pregnant. (Elizabeth was an old woman and had been barren many years, never able to conceive and have a baby.)

39 ¶ At that time Mary got ready and hurried to a town in the hill country of Judea, where she entered Zechariah's home and greeted Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the HOLY SPIRIT.

42 In a loud voice she exclaimed:

" Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the child you will bear! But why am I so favoured, that the mother of my LORD should come to me? As soon as the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy. Blessed is she who has believed that what the LORD has said to her will be accomplished!"

46 And Mary said: " My soul glorifies the LORD and my spirit rejoices in GOD my SAVIOUR, for HE has been mindful of the humble state of his servant. From now on all generations will call me blessed, for the MIGHTY ONE has done great things for me—holy is HIS NAME.

" His mercy extends to those who fear him, from generation to generation. He has performed mighty deeds with his arm; he has scattered those who are proud in their inmost thoughts. He has brought down rulers from their thrones but has lifted up the humble.

" He has filled the hungry with good things but has sent the rich away empty. He has helped his servant Israel, remembering to be merciful to Abraham and his descendants for ever, even as he said to our fathers."

Luke 1:39-55

Mary stayed with Elizabeth for about three months and then returned home.

Elizabeth gave birth and the baby was to grow up to be known as John the Baptist. He was to prepare Israel for the coming MESSIAH, WHO Mary would give birth to six months later.

JESUS grew up as any other Jewish boy of His day. HE didn't go on any world trips or anything as some people imagine, and instead learnt the trade of his apparent father, carpentry. HE became "the Carpenter" of Nazareth.

1 ¶ In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. (This was the first census that took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria.) And everyone went to his own town to register.

4 So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for the BABY to be born, and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped HIM in cloths and placed HIM in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 ¶ And there were shepherds living out in the fields near by, keeping watch over their flocks at night. An angel of the LORD appeared to them, and the glory of the LORD shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people.

11 "Today in the town of David a SAVIOUR has been born to you; he is CHRIST THE LORD. This will be a sign to you: You will find a BABY wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger." Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising GOD and saying, "Glory to GOD in the highest, and on earth peace to men on whom his favour rests."

15 When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the LORD has told us about."

16 So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and THE BABY, WHO was lying in the manger.

while you are still with him on the way, or he may hand you over to the judge, and the judge may hand you over to the officer, and you may be thrown into prison. I tell you the truth, you will not get out until you have paid the last penny.

27 ¶ "You have heard that it was said, 'Do not commit adultery.' But I tell you that anyone who looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

29 If your right eye causes you to sin, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to go into hell.

31 "It has been said, 'Anyone who divorces his wife must give her a certificate of divorce.' But I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife, except for marital unfaithfulness, causes her to become an adulteress, and anyone who marries the divorced woman commits adultery.

33 ¶ "Again, you have heard that it was said to the people long ago, 'Do not break your oath, but keep the oaths you have made to the LORD.' But I tell you, Do not swear at all: either by heaven, for it is GOD's throne; or by the earth, for it is his footstool; or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the Great King. And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make even one hair white or black.

37 Simply let your 'Yes' be 'Yes', and your 'No', 'No'; anything beyond this comes from the evil one.

38 ¶ "You have heard that it was said, 'Eye for eye, and tooth for tooth.' But I tell you, Do not resist an evil person. If someone strikes you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also.

40 And if someone wants to sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. If someone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles. Give to the one who asks you, and do not turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you.

in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

13 ¶ "You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled by men.

14 "You are the light of the world. A city on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven.

17 ¶ "Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfil them.

18 I tell you the truth, until heaven and earth disappear, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished.

19 Anyone who breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever practises and teaches these commands will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I tell you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Pharisees and the teachers of the law, you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven.

21 ¶ "You have heard that it was said to the people long ago, 'Do not murder, and anyone who murders will be subject to judgment.'

22 But I tell you that anyone who is angry with his brother will be subject to judgment. Again, anyone who says to his brother, 'Raca,' is answerable to the Sanhedrin. But anyone who says, 'You fool!' will be in danger of the fire of hell.

23 "Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled to your brother; then come and offer your gift.

25 "Settle matters quickly with your adversary who is taking you to court. Do it

17 When they had seen HIM, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this CHILD, and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart.

20 The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising GOD for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told.

21 ¶ On the eighth day, when it was time to circumcise him, he was named JESUS, the name the angel had given him before he had been conceived.

22 When the time of their purification according to the Law of Moses had been completed, Joseph and Mary took HIM to Jerusalem to present him to the LORD (as it is written in the Law of the LORD, "Every firstborn male is to be consecrated to the LORD"), and to offer a sacrifice in keeping with what is said in the Law of the LORD: "a pair of doves or two young pigeons".

25 ¶ Now there was a man in Jerusalem called Simeon, who was righteous and devout. He was waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the HOLY SPIRIT was upon him. It had been revealed to him by the HOLY SPIRIT that he would not die before he had seen the LORD's CHRIST.

27 Moved by the SPIRIT, he went into the temple courts. When the parents brought in the CHILD JESUS to do for HIM what the custom of the Law required, Simeon took HIM in his arms and praised GOD, saying: "SOVEREIGN LORD, as you have promised, you now dismiss your servant in peace. For my eyes have seen YOUR SALVATION, which YOU have prepared in the sight of all people, a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to YOUR people Israel."

33 The CHILD's father and mother marvelled at what was said about HIM.

34 Then Simeon blessed them and said to Mary, his mother: "This CHILD is destined to cause the falling and rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be spoken against, so that the thoughts of many hearts will be revealed. And a sword will pierce your own soul too."

36 There was also a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was very old; she had lived with her husband seven years after her marriage, and then was a widow until she was eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshipped night and day, fasting and praying. Coming up to them at that very moment, she gave thanks to GOD and spoke about the child to all who were looking forward to the redemption of Jerusalem.

39 When Joseph and Mary had done everything required by the Law of the LORD, they returned to Galilee to their own town of Nazareth. And the CHILD grew and became strong; HE was filled with wisdom, and the grace of GOD was upon HIM.

41 ¶ Every year HIS parents went to Jerusalem for the Feast of the Passover. When HE was twelve years old, they went up to the Feast, according to the custom. After the Feast was over, while his parents were returning home, the boy JESUS stayed behind in Jerusalem, but they were unaware of it.

44 Thinking HE was in their company, they travelled on for a day. Then they began looking for HIM among their relatives and friends. When they did not find HIM, they went back to Jerusalem to look for him. After three days they found HIM in the temple courts, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions.

Everyone who heard HIM was amazed at HIS understanding and HIS answers.

48 When HIS parents saw HIM, they were astonished. His mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us like this? Your father and I have been anxiously searching for you."

"Why were you searching for ME?" he asked. "Didn't you know I had to be in my FATHER'S house?" But they did not understand what HE was saying to them.

51 Then HE went down to Nazareth with them and was obedient to them. But HIS fishermen. "Come, follow me," JESUS said, "and I will make you fishers of men." At once they left their nets and followed him.

21 Going on from there, HE saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John. They were in a boat with their father Zebedee, preparing their nets. Jesus called them, and immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him.

23 ¶ JESUS went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness among the people.

24 News about HIM spread all over Syria, and people brought to him all who were ill with various diseases, those suffering severe pain, the demon-possessed, those having seizures, and the paralysed, and HE healed them.

25 Large crowds from Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea and the region across the Jordan followed him. 1 ¶ Now when he saw the crowds, he went up on a mountainside and sat down. His disciples came to him,

2 and he began to teach them, saying:

3 ¶ "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

5 Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see GOD.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of GOD.

10 Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 "Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of ME. Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward claim to be GOD."

34 Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in your Law, 'I have said you are gods'? If he called them 'gods', to whom the word of GOD came—and the Scripture cannot be broken—what about the ONE WHOM the FATHER set apart as HIS VERY OWN and sent into the world? Why then do you accuse ME of blasphemy because I said, 'I AM GOD'S SON'?"

37 Do not believe ME unless I do what MY FATHER does.

38 But if I do it, even though you do not believe ME, believe the miracles, that you may know and understand that the FATHER is in ME, and I in the FATHER."

39 ¶ Again they tried to seize him, but he escaped their grasp.

John 10:22-39

When Jesus had been baptised, he fasted for forty days and nights. And then he was tempted by the Devil. Not once did JESUS yield to him, and answered the final temptation with,

10 JESUS said to him, "Away from me, Satan! For it is written: 'Worship the LORD your GOD, and serve Him only.'"

11 Then the devil left HIM, and angels came and attended HIM.

12 ¶ When JESUS heard that John had been put in prison, he returned to Galilee. Leaving Nazareth, HE went and lived in Capernaum, which was by the lake in the area of Zebulun and Naphtali—to fulfil what was said through the prophet Isaiah:

15 "Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the way to the sea, along the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles—the people living in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of the shadow of death a light has dawned."

17 From that time on JESUS began to preach, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near."

18 ¶ As JESUS was walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon called Peter and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the lake, for they were mother treasured all these things in her heart. And JESUS grew in wisdom and stature, and in favour with GOD and men.

Luke 2

JESUS' second cousin John, started baptising Israel calling them to turn from their sins. And JESUS though no sinner, to please HIS HEAVENLY FATHER in every regard, went down to the river Jordan to be baptised as well. If you also believe in JESUS you also have to be baptised.

In reading the whole genealogy following the description of JESUS' baptism below, you will note that it is extensive, going right back to the first man GOD created. Perhaps only the Jewish race can do this. For only they, under GOD'S SPIRIT'S direction, have meticulously kept the records through the millennia. When you read the Old Testament of the Bible, you will find the people who you are descended off as well. Sometimes the very nation or tribe you are originally from can be easily identified.

21 ¶ When all the people were being baptised, JESUS was baptised too. And as HE was praying, heaven was opened and the HOLY SPIRIT descended on him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven:

"You are my SON, whom I love; with you I am well pleased."

23 Now JESUS HIMSELF was about thirty years old when he began his ministry. HE was the son, so it was thought, of Joseph, the son of Heli,

24 the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melki, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph,

25 the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai,

26 the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein, the son of Josech, the son of Joda,

27 the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri,

28 the son of Melki, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmadam, the son of Er,

29 the son of Joshua, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi,

30 the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonam, the son of Eliakim,

31 the son of Melea, the son of Menna, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David,

32 the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon,

33 the son of Amminadab, the son of Ram, the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah,

34 the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nahor,

35 the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Shelah,

36 the son of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech,

37 the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalalel, the son of Kenan, 38 the son of Enosh, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of GOD.

JESUS has another genealogy, additional to this first one apparently given through his mother Mary. This one from Matthew's gospel works forward from after the Flood of Noah starting with Abraham.

Mary remained a virgin until after Jesus was born.

18 ¶ This is how the birth of JESUS CHRIST came about: His mother Mary was pledged to be married to Joseph, but before they came together, she was found to be with child through the HOLY SPIRIT.

19 Because Joseph her husband was a righteous man and did not want to expose her to public disgrace, he had in mind to divorce her quietly.

20 But after he had considered this, an angel of the LORD appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the HOLY SPIRIT.

21 She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name JESUS, because he will save his people from their sins."

22 All this took place to fulfil what the LORD had said through the prophet:

23 "The virgin will be

This news about JESUS spread throughout Judea and the surrounding country.

18 John's disciples told him about all these things. Calling two of them, he sent them to the LORD to ask, "Are you the one who was to come, or should we expect someone else?" When the men came to Jesus, they said, "John the Baptist sent us to you to ask, 'Are you the one who was to come, or should we expect someone else?'"

21 At that very time JESUS cured many who had diseases, sicknesses and evil spirits, and gave sight to many who were blind. So he replied to the messengers, "Go back and report to John what you have seen and heard: The blind receive sight, the lame walk, those who have leprosy are cured, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is preached to the poor. Blessed is the man who does not fall away on account of ME."

(Luke 7:1 -23)

22 ¶ Then came the Feast of Dedication at Jerusalem. It was winter, and JESUS was in the temple area walking in Solomon's Colonnade. The Jews gathered round HIM, saying, "How long will YOU keep us in suspense? If YOU are the CHRIST, tell us plainly." JESUS answered, "I did tell you, but you do not believe. The miracles I do in MY FATHER's name speak for ME, but you do not believe because you are not MY sheep.

27 MY sheep listen to MY voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no-one can snatch them out of MY hand. My FATHER, who has given them to me, is greater than all; no-one can snatch them out of my FATHER's hand.

30 I and the FATHER are one."

31 Again the Jews picked up stones to stone HIM, but JESUS said to them, "I have shown you many great miracles from the FATHER. For which of these do you stone ME?"

33 "We are not stoning you for any of these," replied the Jews, "but for blasphemy, because you, a mere man,

And here Luke tells us what JESUS was doing,

1 ¶ . . . When JESUS had finished saying all this in the hearing of the people, HE entered Capernaum. There a centurion's servant, whom his master valued highly, was sick and about to die. The centurion heard of JESUS and sent some elders of the Jews to him, asking him to come and heal his servant.

4 When they came to JESUS, they pleaded earnestly with HIM, "This man deserves to have you do this, because he loves our nation and has built our synagogue."

6 So JESUS went with them. HE was not far from the house when the centurion sent friends to say to him:

"LORD, don't trouble yourself, for I do not deserve to have YOU come under my roof. That is why I did not even consider myself worthy to come to you. But say the word, and my servant will be healed. For I myself am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I tell this one, 'Go', and he goes; and that one, 'Come', and he comes. I say to my servant,

'Do this', and he does it." When JESUS heard this, HE was amazed at him, and turning to the crowd following him, he said, "I tell you, I have not found such great faith even in Israel."

10 Then the men who had been sent returned to the house and found the servant well.

11 ¶ Soon afterwards, JESUS went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went along with him. As he approached the town gate, a dead person was being carried out—the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the town was with her. When the LORD saw her, his heart went out to her and he said, "Don't cry." Then HE went up and touched the coffin, and those carrying it stood still. HE said, "Young man, I say to you, get up!" The dead man sat up and began to talk, and JESUS gave him back to his mother.

16 They were all filled with awe and praised GOD. "A great prophet has appeared among us," they said. "GOD has come to help His people."

with child and will give birth to a son, and they will call him "IMMANUEL"— which means, "GOD with us."

24 When Joseph woke up, he did what the angel of the LORD had commanded him and took Mary home as his wife. But he had no union with her until she gave birth to a son. And he gave him the name JESUS.

You might have noticed in the Scripture reproduced above that Matthew says that JESUS came in fulfilment to prophecy.

In fact every important aspect of JESUS' life is a fulfilment of prophecy. Words and visions given to GOD's servants from long ago.

But most importantly look at the name JESUS would have,

' .. "IMMANUEL"— which means, "GOD with us." .. '

In the genealogy reproduced before we see JESUS as the Son of Man, of the first man Adam. But Jesus is also the Eternal SON OF GOD, Who was with HIS FATHER before the world was created. As a person HIMSELF not created.

The book of Hebrews in the Bible speaks in these terms,

1 IN MANY separate revelations each of which set forth a portion of the Truth and in different ways GOD spoke of old to our forefathers in and by the prophets,

2 But in the last of these days He has spoken to us in the person of a SON, WHOM HE appointed HEIR and lawful OWNER of all things, also by and through WHOM HE created the worlds and the reaches of space and the ages of time HE made, produced, built, operated, and arranged them in order.

3 HE is the sole expression of the glory of GOD the Light-being, the out-raying or radiance of the divine, and HE is the perfect imprint and very image of GOD's nature, upholding and maintaining and guiding and propelling the universe by HIS mighty word of power. When HE had by offering HIMSELF accomplished our cleansing of sins and riddance of guilt, He sat down at the right hand of the DIVINE MAJESTY on high,

4 Taking a place and rank by which HE HIMSELF became as much superior to angels as the glorious NAME (title) which HE has inherited is different from and more excellent than theirs.

5 For to which of the angels did GOD ever say, YOU are MY SON, today I have begotten YOU established YOU in an official SONSHIP relation, with kingly dignity? And again, I will be to Him a FATHER, and HE will be to ME a SON? (II Sam. 7:14; Ps. 27)

6 Moreover, when HE brings THE FIRSTBORN SON again into the habitable world, He says, Let all the angels of GOD worship HIM. Referring to the angels He says, GOD WHO makes His angels winds and His ministering servants flames of fire; But as to THE SON, He says to HIM, YOUR throne, O GOD, is forever and ever (to the ages of the ages), and the scepter of YOUR kingdom is a scepter of absolute righteousness (of justice and straightforwardness).

9 You have loved righteousness YOU have delighted in integrity, virtue, and uprightness in purpose, thought, and action and YOU have hated lawlessness (injustice and iniquity). Therefore GOD, even YOUR GOD (GODHEAD), has anointed YOU with the oil of exultant joy and gladness above and beyond YOUR companions. And further, YOU, LORD, did lay the foundation of the earth in the beginning, and the heavens are the works of YOUR hands.

11 They will perish, but YOU remain and continue permanently; they will all grow old and wear out like a garment. Like a mantle thrown about one's self YOU will roll them up, and they will be changed and replaced by others. But YOU remain the same, and YOUR years will never end nor come to failure.

13 Besides, to which of the angels has HE ever said, Sit at My right hand associated with ME in MY royal dignity till I make your enemies a stool for your feet? Are not the angels all ministering spirits (servants) sent out in the service of GOD for the assistance of those who are to inherit salvation?

(Hebrews 1 Amplified Bible)

Here we have an overview of work of the SON OF GOD, starting from the creation of all things, to His death and resurrection for the cleansing of our sins before GOD.

Lets start at the beginning, the creation of all things and review what the Scripture can tell us about that. From the Amplified Bible again.

“HE has spoken to us in the person of a SON, WHOM HE appointed HEIR and lawful OWNER of all things, also by and through WHOM HE created the worlds and the reaches of space and the ages of time HE made, produced, built, operated, and arranged them in order.

3 HE is the sole expression of the glory of GOD the Light-being, the out-raying or radiance of the divine, and HE is the perfect imprint and very image of GOD's nature, upholding and maintaining and guiding and propelling the universe by His mighty word of power.”

What Lasting Evidence is There to Accredit All of This?

During JESUS' time on Earth he fulfilled the ancient prophecies concerning the day when GOD would visit the human race. And one of the clearest sets of things that he had to fulfill to line up being THE SON OF GOD, is something that still happens through faith in HIM today.

In ancient times the LORD'S SPIRIT moved His prophet Isaiah to speak and say,

5¶ Then will the eyes of the blind be opened and the ears of the deaf unstopped.

6 Then will the lame leap like a deer, and the mute tongue shout for joy. Water will gush forth in the wilderness and streams in the desert.

Isaiah 35:5-6

1¶ The SPIRIT OF THE SOVEREIGN LORD is on ME, because the LORD has anointed ME to preach good news to the poor. HE has sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners,

Isaiah 61:1
